FINAL PICTURE . . . With his team and fellow Coaches, Coach Norm Verry (center, holding clipboard) boarded the charter flight which took him as far as Reno, Nev., where he was hospitalized before returning to the Southland. The former USC All-American guard died at 10 a.m. Thursday.

Camino Grid Coach Verry Dies

A 20-day struggle between life and death was terminated at 10 a.m. Thursday with the death of Norm Verry, El Camino College football coach. "We were winning for a while," Coach Verry's physician stated Thursday, "but his condition turned bad at 2 a.m."

Stricken by a series of three cerebral hemorrhages in as many weeks, the former USC All-American underwent surgery at midnight Wednesday. His condition was listed as critical during the 28 hours following the completion of surgery.

Initial attack while en route to Boise, Idaho with his team Sept. 23, the congenial college coach was under the care of medical experts. Removed from the charter flight at Reno, Nev., he was rushed to Washo Medical Center, where he was under the immediate care of a neurosurgeon.

Brought to Los Angeles by air ambulance a week following the occurrence of hemorrhaging in Reno, Coach Verry showed "remarkable" signs of recovery before suffering two subsequent attacks. In Los Angeles he was placed under care of specialists.

A cerebral hemorrhage several years ago, again in the vicinity of Reno.

A gifted speaker and respected educator, Coach Verry came to El Camino College in 1950 from Inglewood High School, where he served on the coaching staff for one year. In 1951 he took a year's leave of absence to serve with the U.S. military forces.

"THIS WILL have to be the year," he told by-standers while awaiting the flight to Boise, Sept. 23. He held high respect for the team and fellow coaches who now mourn his death. As head coach, he tutored players who, following his example, rose to All-American heights.

Particularly talented as a line coach, Verry turned out championship Warrior teams in 1952 and 1954. His '54 squad rose unexpectedly to play in the Junior Rose Bowl against Hines, Miss.

A NATIVE of Hanford, the coach attended Visalia High School, where he captained the local team to numerous wins, and upon graduation he attended the University of Southern California until 1942, when he entered the U.S. Marine Corps.

In 1944, he played for his alma mater in the Rose Bowl at the guard position which he filled so capably.

RELEASED from active duty in 1946, Norm Verry turned his career to professional football, playing with the Chicago Rockets in both 1946 and 1947. Here he made an outstanding and enviable record as the most outstanding lineman on that team.

The coach was noted for his uncanny ability in spotting his opponents by diagnosing them through a grueling scouting schedule.

COMMENTING upon the death of the beloved faculty member, President Stuart E. Maree of El Camino College said, "I've never known a man who has known Norm Verry and hasn't loved him. To know him was to love him. All will miss him dearly . . . we feel deeply for his wife and sons."

The college instructor is survived by his widow, Lois, and two sons Steve, 12, and Richard 15. The family home is at 864 11th St., Manhattan Beach. Funeral arrangements will be announced later, but the family has requested that in lieu of flowers contributions be made to the Norm Verry Memorial Fund.

Funeral services for Coach Verry will be conducted tomorrow at 2 p.m. at Crenshaw Christian Church, 9550 Crenshaw Blvd., Inglewood.

Officiating will be the Dr. Joseph M. Applegate, pastor of the church. Funeral arrangements are being made by White and Day Funeral Chapel, Manhattan Beach.

The family has requested that in lieu of flowers contributions be made to the Norm Verry Memorial Fund, which is being administered on the campus of El Camino College by Merl F. Sloan, director of student personnel.

Pallbearers will be a fellow marine Bob Robertson, who served with the deceased in two wars and fellow El Camino College coaches Don Jurk, Doug Essick, Ken Swearingin, Dave Hengstler, and John Morrow, director of athletics.

Torrance Eleven Smashes Norman Gridders, 12 to 6

Two athletes who have earned their claim to fame in other sports teamed up Friday afternoon to give the Torrance High gridders a 12 to 6 victory over host Beverly Hills in a Pioneer League clash.

Quarterback John Cambon, a questionmark at the beginning of the season and a great baseball star for the Tartars, got together with quartermule ace Bob Roy to score both Torrance touchdowns.

Roy scampered across for the opening Torrance score in the first quarter, and Cambon sped for another THIS tally in the second period as a stiff Tartar defense held off a determined Norman offense until the fourth quarter when Richard Berin went over from 1-yard out for Beverly Hills' only score of the game.

Worried about Torrance's usually poor play on the Norman gridiron, THIS coach Irv Kasten need not have, as his boys simply overpowered the lighter Normans and man-handled them throughout the contest.

Kasten's minions will run up on their own gridiron. The Falcons were picked to finish on top of the Pioneer heap, but a first game loss to powerful Culver City all but eliminated Aviation's title hopes, and it will be going for a win in every game, hoping someone else will be able to stop the Centaurs.

Hawthorne Gridders Rout South, 42 to 20

By JIM VAUGHN

South High's title hopes were dealt a final crippling blow while the Cougars from Hawthorne bolstered their bid for Bay League honors with a convincing 42-20 victory Friday night at Torrance.

This win, coupled with their 31-0 trouncing of Redondo, leaves Hawthorne undefeated in league play, the only other team sharing this distinction being Inglewood. South has lost their first two conference tilts.

The Cougars were invincible as they combined a crunching ground game with a deadly aerial assault to give them a versatile scoring punch, without equal among Bay League contenders.

SOUTH RELIED heavily on their ground game as they did against both Inglewood and Long Beach Jordan. But the Cougars were ready for them, giving the highly-touted Spartan forward wall a battle royal from the word go. Led by Dan Dye (6'3, 230), the Hawthorne defenders gave their counterparts all they could handle, stopping the Spartan ground machine that had proved so effective earlier this season.

The Cougars struck early as quarterback Ron Petch plunged over from 1 yard out with just 3:35 gone in the first quarter. His TD was set up by Gene Fay who raced 80 yards with the opening kickoff to the South 14-yard line.

Hawthorne tallied again in the first quarter. Fay sweeping 25 yards to paydirt after Petch intercepted a Spartan aerial on the South 26. Petch converted both attempts to give the Cougars a 14-7 lead at the half, as the Spartans scored in the closing minutes, quarterback Dan Ely sneaking over from the 1-yard line. Harvey Siegel sliced over right tackle for the conversion.
