

MYRA CHRISTINE ROBERTS
... Speech Major

Myra Roberts Presented at University

Miss Myra Christine Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Roberts, 2334 W. 241 St., Lomita, was presented by the Bob Jones University speech faculty Thursday, Oct. 26, in a speech recital in the Concert Center on the University campus in Greenville, S.C.

Miss Roberts presented her original adaptation of "The Ugly Duckling," by A. A. Milne, in partial fulfillment of requirements for the degree of bachelor of science. She is majoring in speech education. Miss Roberts prepared her recital under the direction of Mrs. Bob Harris of the Department of Speech of the School of Fine Arts.

A liberal arts, co-educational, Christian institution, Bob Jones University matriculates more than 3,000 students annually. The student body this semester includes young people from 49 states, the District of Columbia, and 27 foreign countries and territories.

B'nai B'rith Chapter to Meet Monday

Regular business meeting of Hollypark B'nai B'rith Women will be held at 8:30 pm., Monday, Nov. 6, at Southwest Temple Beth Torah, 14725 Gramercy Pl., in Gardena, announces Mrs. Ralph Miller, president. Prospective members are invited to attend the meeting, which will be followed by refreshments and cards.

The chapter recently honored its paid-up members and their husbands with a Halloween party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sterns of Gardena. Bobbing for apples and other traditional fun was enjoyed by about forty guests, reports Mrs. Robert Brody, membership chairman.

B'nai B'rith is the world's oldest and largest Jewish service organization, and this year celebrates its 118th anniversary. Funds raised by this group aid its philanthropic activities, including Anti-Defamation League, Hillel, Bellefaire Home for maladjusted children, Leo N. Levi Memorial Hospital and others.

A special project of the Hollypark B'nai B'rith chapter and men's lodge is the Long Beach Veterans Administration Hospital, where members visit regularly to entertain the patients.

Missionary From Africa Will Speak

Mrs. Robin Markham, Missionary from Angola, Africa, will speak before the Women's Guild of Seaside Community Church, at their regular monthly meeting Tuesday, November 7, at 7:30 p.m. Along with the message, Mrs. Markham will present slides taken while she was serving in that country. Mrs. Markham, a nurse and wife of an American Board Educator in Angola, recently returned to this country with her four daughters, after she was urged to leave Angola for their safety.

In conjunction with Mrs. Markham's presentation, the Women's Guild will prepare a packet for the children in Angola. The project will consist of making doll cradles from salt boxes. Small dolls will be sent with the cradles, and women are requested to bring to the meeting scraps of cotton and flannelette material, together with yarn, thread, and ribbon, to be enclosed in the package, so the children can make clothes for the dolls.

This meeting, also, will feature the ingathering of the Thank Offering boxes. Members are requested to bring their thank offering boxes to the meeting. Mrs. Richard Evans will conduct the Thank Offering Service. Hostesses for this meeting will be Mrs. Ted Costa and Mrs. Carl Krohne.

SANDRA STEPHENS
