

Noted Mimic To Appear At College

Lotte Goslar, international mimic, will appear with her pantomime circus at El Camino College for one night only, at 8:30 p.m., Nov. 21, in the Campus Theatre.

The Goslar performance, "For Humans Only," lasts as long as two hours and has been described as "The dancing clown and her hilarious company."

All seats for her El Camino College appearance must be reserved. Tickets are now on sale at the Student Store at $1.50 for the public and $1 with an activity book.

Miss Goslar has toured extensively both in Europe and America.

Her program is a mixture of dance, pantomime, music, clowning, parody, circus cabaret music hall, and an element of the grotesque.

Annual Scout Pancake Feed Due Saturday

The annual pancake breakfast of Boy Scout Troop 315 will be held from 6:30 to 10 a.m. Saturday at the Torrance Moose Lodge, 1744 W. Carson St., it was announced yesterday by committee chairman Lynn Dane.

The menu will include sausages, juice, and coffee in addition to the pancakes, he said.

Tickets are now on sale through members of the troop, or may be purchased at the breakfast, according to chairman Irv Calkins.

Members of the troop will serve the plates, dads will take care of the kitchen end of the affair under the direction of Herb Shattuck. Scoutmaster Homer Foster will oversee both ends of the operation, Dane said.

The pancake breakfast is one of the major fund-raising events of the troop each year.

Girls' Group On Ice-Skating Party Saturday

Members of the Girls Friendly Society at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church have spent a busy two-week period, leaders of the group said this week.

Beginning with a Halloween party at the church two weeks ago, the group wound up last Saturday with an ice-skating party in Paramount.

Mrs. Ted Whisnand, leader for the group for several years, was honored as she turned over the reins to successors last week. The girls presented a gift to the retiring leader.

Upcoming events include operation of a cakewalk at the church bazaar Saturday, and work on Christmas projects for hospitalized children.
