

Vel's Ford Names Clark General Sales Manager

Appointment of Jack Clark as general sales manager of Vel's Ford at the firm's new downtown location, 1600 Cabrillo Ave., was announced yesterday by Vel Miletich, president of the agency.

Clark, formerly supervisor in charge of production for McCulloch Corp. for 12 years, has been a Torrance resident since 1956. Miletich said in making the announcement. His wife, Norma, is active in many local civic organizations, and his three children, Candice, 11; Cathy, 9, and Gary, 5, attend Torrance schools.

Clark has been a Vel's Ford salesman and sales manager since 1956 and during this period, achieved special sales recognition awards from the Ford Motor Co. as a member of the 300-500 Club in 1958, 1959, and 1960.

The new general sales manager was a former student of law at Loyola University, and is graduate of the Benjamin Barchardt and Assoc. school for standards and research. He also is a graduate of the Sales Analysis Institute of San Francisco.

He will maintain his office at the 1800 Cabrillo Vel's Ford headquarters.

Rx is the symbol for the Latin word "resipio" meaning "Take Thou"—advice from physician to patient.
