

Torrance optometrist, Dr. Joe Bay, O.D., a member of the Los Angeles County Optometric Society, has been appointed high school vision poster and essay contest representative to Torrance and North Torrance High schools. It was announced yesterday by Dr. L. Earl James, Los Angeles County chairman. The poster and essay contest, sponsored by the Vision Conservation Institute, Inc., is now in progress. It is open to all parochial and public high schools in California. First place winners in each division will receive special plaques. Certificates will be awarded for honorable mention. Area winners receive plaques and the Los Angeles

City high school winners will, in addition, have their names engraved on a perpetual plaque that will be hung in the winner's high school. The theme of the contest is "Safer Driving Through Better Vision." Judging for the city and county will take place at the Los Angeles Board of Education at 9:00 a.m., Jan. 11, with the last day for entries from high schools Friday, Dec. 8.

The county winners will receive their plaques at an awards banquet to be held Thursday, Jan. 18, at the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel.

Wins Talent Show With Aria

A Torrance girl, Bonnie Kail, won last week's "Search for Talent" show honors in a contest sponsored by the Bay Cities Civic Theater Assn. in Redondo Beach.

Miss Kail won a trophy and an oil portrait of herself for her presentation of an operatic aria. She will appear again on Saturday, Dec. 16.

The shows are held each Saturday evening beginning at 8:15. Proceeds are donated to the Garden Valley Retarded Children's School in Gardena.

Harbor Sets Annual Ball

The biggest social event of the season for Harbor College will be the annual Christmas Ball to be held Saturday in the Regency Room of the Sheraton-West Hotel in Los Angeles.

Pat Ngoho, A.S.O. social chairman, states that more student participation is expected for this traditional dance than for any other social event.

Sometime during the evening the outstanding man and woman members of the graduating sophomore class will be announced. The selection will be made on a basis of scholarship and leadership by a joint faculty-student committee.

Music will be provided by Chuck Marlowe, with Gloria Lane, vocalist. Special entertainment will feature Larry Collins, comedian, with a 30-minute act during intermission. Collins has entertained throughout the United States and in many foreign countries.

Faculty guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Wendell C. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn G. Gooder, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Reynburn Hatfield.

Admission to this dance is free to all A.S.O. activity card holders. Guest and alumni

Saxon Coeds Seek Goods

Christmas will be a happier day for many because of the activities of more than 500 members of the Girls' Athletic Assn. at North High School.

The club opened its sixth Monday and will collect, wrap, Monday and will collect, wrap, and send toys and food to the Salvation Army for distribution to needy families during the holidays, according to Mary Montgomery, sponsor of the campus group. "Some needy family or orphan will have a more joyous Christmas because of Saxon generosity," GAA President Diane Reis said.

"I know the students will back the drive by bringing to school usable toys, canned good, cereals, and other non-perishable foods," she added. The drive will continue until Dec. 15.

Dance Recital Planned Sunday

The Three Arts Dance Studio, 2252 W. Carson St., will present its Christmas dance recital, "Dancers' Holiday," at the Lomita Park Auditorium at 7 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 10. The program will include group, tap, ballroom, Spanish, and Hawaiian dancing. Children and adults will take part
