Auntie Mame Opens Tomorrow Evening in Chapel Theatre

With the grand opening of "Auntie Mame" at Chapel Theatre to be Friday, Dec. 15, at 8:30 p.m., speculation is at high gear among cost, crew, and staff as to what "Teddy Chapel" will wear in connection with this new production. No one knows until opening night how the well known mascot of Chapel Theatre will be costumed until the opening night of each new production. Because there is such a vast variety of different styles of costuming, according to the various eras in which the play is involved, and the fact that there will be 18 costume changes for "Auntie Mame" alone, imaginations are running rampant as to how "Teddy" will be dressed.

of an intriguing and fabulous woman, and the hilarious effect she has on the lives of her innocent nephew and friends.

AUNTIE MAME is entirely unpredictable and uninhibited, whose antics are nothing short of astounding, with a capability of getting into situations totally unbelievable.

Chapel Theatre anticipates a prolonged visit from "Auntie Mame" which will be presented each weekend, until further notice, Friday through Sunday, with curtain time 8:30 p.m., at the theater's new location in Smith Bros. Fish Shanty shopping center, 4164 Pacific Coast Hwy., in Waleria section of Torrance. Reservations for any weekend performance may be made by calling Box Office, FR 2-9636 or FR 8-9017 evenings. To be assured of obtaining the performance date of your choice, it is suggested that reservations be made well in advance.

Reservations are still available for the gala New Year's Eve celebration which will be held after the December 31st performance of "Auntie Mame" at the Smith Bros. Fish Shanty Restaurant, 4020 Pacific Coast Highway, in the Waleria section of Torrance. The order of events for the evening will include dinner at Fish Shanty; seeing the performance at Chapel Theatre; return to Fish Shanty for a full evening of New Year's Eve celebration including dancing to the music of "The Hi Hatters." Reservations and further information may be obtained by calling FR 2-9636 or FR 8-9017 evenings, or Fish Shanty Restaurant at FR 5-2294.

The Mother Butler Mission Guild of Marymount College held a Holiday Arts Festival at the home of Mrs. Paul Saffo of Rolling Hills. Guild chairman Mrs. William Zens was in charge.
