Phone Workers Donate $464,000 for Charity

Pacific Telephone men and women in the Los Angeles and Ventura areas responded again this year to the Associated In-group Donors (AID) plan of charitable giving to the tune of $464,000.

The amount subscribed — mostly by payroll deduction during 1962 — is an increase of about $12,500 over last year, Eva Terpsten, Pacific's assistant vice president, announced this week.

The money collected will go next year to participating health and welfare agencies of AID and numerous other agencies individually selected by employees.

The dollars will buy research, equipment, health and physical education, direct aid — as it is needed.

Miss Terpsten said that 88.8 per cent of the 20,950 employe body subscribed to AID during the annual campaign in October. A record 64.7 per cent of these employes met the "AID standard of giving," or the equivalent of 12 minutes pay each week.

BEST BUYS FOR THE WEEK

In Torrance Markets

Our holidays are so steeped in tradition that most Christmas menus are "solid" by this time. But if you are inclined to a few suggestions here are some notes about foods in California markets:

For some of the special breakfasts — Beautiful golden glow of citrus fruits... oranges, lemons, grapefruit, tangerines.

A hearty breakfast for that late-in-the-day holiday dinner — Apples... baked ones (with cream), or fried to serve with spicy sausage.

For the inevitable holiday buffet — Ham Turkey Chicken Beef: cold, sliced rib roast. Veal Paprika with Almond-Poppyseed Noodles. Curried Shrimp in Green Rice Ring.

For Christmas Eve — Oyster Stew Crusty Rolls California Fresh Fruit Salad Bowl... Citrus Fruits, Avocados, Bananas, Grapes, Pears, Persimmons, Pineapples, Papayas, Strawberries. Or Ambrosia... sliced California oranges with shredded fresh coconut.

For the best cranberries you ever had, put some in the oven to bake the next time you have a little extra room:

BAKED CRANBERRIES
1 pound (1 package) cranberries
1½ cups sugar
Wash berries. Put in 1½ quart-size casserole. Stir in sugar. Cover and bake about an hour. Cool.

Along with all the fine canned and frozen vegetables for your selection you'll find an assortment of beautiful fresh-from-the-field foods. Have something different unless your family is firm about having no changes for holiday meals:

Anise Artichokes Celery Root (Celeriac) Cardoon (Cardoni) China Peas Chinese Cabbage
