Nonresidents Must Report Address Here

George K. Rosenberg, district director of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service, estimated today that 375,000 aliens residing in Southern California will report their address during January 1962 under the Alien Address Report Program.

Rosenberg said that non-citizens are required to file the Special Address Report Card each January.

In addition, aliens who are temporarily out of the United States during January must report their address to the Service within 10 days after their return.

The district director said that address report cards will be available at the Immigration Service office at 510 S. Vermont Ave., Los Angeles, and also at all local United States Post Offices beginning Jan. 2.

All artists in the South Bay area are invited to participate in the show. A 50 cent entry fee will be charged and applications may be secured from Mrs. DeHoog, 445 Manhattan Ave., Hermosa Beach, or at most area parks.

ing and will be assigned to a guided missile site in the Los Angeles area.

Pvt. McElhiney, a Torrance High graduate, has completed basic, advanced and airborne training. He has been assigned to the 82nd Air Borne Division Artillery at Ft. Bragg, N.C. He also attended El Camino College for one year.

SPEC. 4 McDONALD is stationed at a guided missile site in Newhall. The Torrance High graduate enlisted May 9.

"This group of men is representative of Torrance youth serving our country and are considered an outstanding asset to the United States Army," Recruiting Sgt. Donald E. Fleming said.

Quaker Group Meets Weekly In San Pedro

Members of the Harbor Friends (Quakers) announced this week that regular weekly worship meetings are held every Sunday at 10:30 a.m. at the Toberman Settlement, 131 N. Grand, San Pedro. All interested persons are invited to attend the services, and baby-sitting services will be provided.

The Harbor Friends was organized in 1961, and held meetings at the home of members until last October, when they began using the Toberman Settlement. The group is under the guidance of the Santa Monica Friends, and plans to affiliate with the Pacific Yearly Meeting.

Robert Mayer of San Pedro is clerk of the group. Other officers include Ted Neff, Torrance, treasurer, and Dorothy Haywood, San Pedro, librarian.
