Is there anything I can say or do to discourage these gifts? Whenever I see her coming with a package I die a thousand deaths. I hate to seem ungrateful, but it makes me sick.—DILEMMA

Dear Dilemma: The best approach is this: "Please don't buy clothes for me anymore. I'm awfully hard to fit, I have peculiar color preferences and my taste in general is odd. I think you're wonderful and generous but I'm just one of those nutty people who has to select everything himself."

Confidential to SUZIE Q.: This may be HIS little red wagon but you're riding in it. Don't be a stubborn fool. Insist that he go to an accountant and get matters straightened around at once.

Plea Made For Dance Chaperones

The lack of adult volunteer chaperones for the teenage dances at the YWCA has caused several dances to be cancelled recently.

Mrs. Carol Wood, executive director of the YWCA, is asking for volunteers to chaperone these dances which are enjoyed by several hundred local teenagers.

The dances are scheduled on Saturday nights at the YWCA giving Torrance teenagers good, wholesome recreation. The building is available at all times to the teenagers and serving as chaperones gives the adults first hand "on the spot" information as to how and with whom the teenagers are spending their time.

Anyone wishing to assist with these dances is asked to call Mrs. Wood at the YWCA.
