

ACCIDENT VICTIM . . . Ambulance attendants and bystanders life Gordon James Tilley, 16, of 1017 Kornblum Ave., onto a stretcher after he was injured Saturday when his car turned over on Watson Avenue just west of Manuel Avenue.

MAKING REPORTS . . . A police officer and fireman, on other side of overturned vehicle, make out reports while another fireman, right, prepares to wash gasoline from the pavement. The accident happened about 4 p.m. Saturday beside the Torrance High School auditorium, background. (Herald Photos)

'Pro-American' Talk Scheduled

"Nuclear War, a Communist America, or the Peace Plan from Heaven," will be the topic of a lecture by Stephen Orzco in the Nativity church annex, Arlington and Engracia Avenues, on Friday at 8 p.m. The public has been invited to the "pro-American" program by the Rev. John P. Cremins, pastor of Nativity church. No admission will be charged. Orzco is the editor of the anti-Communist publication of the Apostolate of Christian Action located in Fresno. A question and answer period will follow the lecture.
