TARTAR TEEN TALK

by Frances Adams

Elections for the second semester started this week on the Torrance High School campus when nomination blanks were made available to students.

Positions in all student posts are open, including the jobs on the Student Council.

To qualify for a class office, a candidate must be a member in good standing in the class he represents, and must maintain a "C" or a "B" average, depending on the office he seeks.

A class campaign "aud call" has been scheduled for this Thursday, and the elections will, if needed, be held two days later on Jan. 26.

THE TORCH of 1961 has received an award of merit and a second-place rating in its division for cover design, according to an announcement made from the Book Cover Managers of America's original design competition.

Tom Hubbard, graduate of 1961, designed the prize-winning cover. He now is attending art school. News of the award came from the Universal Book Publishers, Inc., San Antonio, Tex.

TORRANCE HIGH'S marching and concert band, under the direction of George Knights, wound up a busy pre-

Christmas season with invitational appearances at the All Western Band Review in Long Beach Nov. 25, the Arcadia Invitational Nov. 18, and USC's Invitational earlier.

Led by Mike Hadley, drum major, the band won praise for its performances. It was judged by the Southern California Assn. of Bands and Orchestras, and scored 85 points for its "Blues" show at half-time during the Aviation-Torrance football game. It was placed high among California's bands.

THROUGHOUT the basketball season, the band will break into three units, alternating appearances at the various games. Plans also are under way for concerts to be given in the auditorium. If a sufficient number of students are interested, beginning instrument classes will be offered by Director Knights in the near future.

Army Pvt. Leo W. Hazher Jr., whose parents live at 1629 W. 224th St., completed the eight-week automotive maintenance helper course at Ft. Ord Dec. 22.

Hazher was trained to perform organizational, field and depot maintenance on automotive material.

He entered the Army last August and completed basic training at Ft. Ord.
