ON ANNIVERSARY . . . Children of the Religious School of Temple Menorah helped celebrate the temple's second anniversary with a tree-planting ceremony. This tree, originally grown in soil from Israel and watered with water from the Jordan River, is one of four planted to beautify the temple grounds in Redondo Beach. The fete coincided with the Jewish holiday "Tu B'Shvat," or "Jewish Arbor Day," at which time it is the custom for synagogues to plant a tree to remind members of the Jewish faith of God's commandment to beautify the earth.

Wellman Elevated to Top Post by Financial Group
 Charles Wellman has been elected president of First Charter Financial Corp., the nation's second largest savings and loan holding company and parent company of American Savings and Loan Assn.
 The announcement was made by S. Mark Taper, who has advanced from president to chairman of the board and chief executive officer of First Charter Financial Corp. First Charter has six savings and loan associations, with a total of 44 offices in California.
 Wellman, a nationally known savings and loan executive, resigned his position as president of the fourth largest federal savings and loan association in the nation, to become president and managing officer of First Charter.
 Wellman was a member of the five-man housing "task force" which laid the groundwork for President Kennedy's current multi-billion dollar housing program. In addition, he is chairman of the legislative committee of the National League of Insured Savings Assn., and a member of the legislative committees of both the United States Savings and Loan League and the California Savings and Loan League.

Local Coed In College Drama Role
 Sally Mason, California Western University student from Torrance, is starring in the university's first experimental drama production, Ionesco's "The Chairs."
 The modern French play is being presented to the San Diego community Wednesday in the new Salomon Theater on campus.
 Miss Mason is the daughter of Mrs. R. C. Mason, 1525-D Marcelina. She is a graduate of Torrance High School.
 The coed has appeared in other university productions, including "Diary of Anne Frank." Her drama awards include the "best girl drama student," the Rosemary DeCamp P' ywrighting Award, and the Robert Mason scholarship.
 With her starring role in the Ionesco play, Sally is appearing in "the sort of play not usually produced," Donald L. Barbe, professor in the fine arts division, said. "It's the university's first experimental production."
 Stage setting are sparse, and most effects are created by lighting.

ON THE statewide level, Wellman is chairman of Governor Brown's Senate Reapportionment Commission and was formerly a member of the Governor's Business Advisory Council.
 A native of Chicago, he attended the University of California at Los Angeles and the University of Southern California, where he received his degree in law. During World War II he served with the U.S. Army.
 He began his business career as a Los Angeles attorney, and in 1940 entered the savings and loan field with Coast Federal Savings of Los Angeles. In 1948, he became a vice president of Glendale Federal Savings, a one-office association with assets of $29 million. He advanced to executive vice president and managing officer in 1954, and was elected president in January 1961. Glendale Federal Savings now has 11 offices, and assets totaling more than $400 million.
