Group Planning Date Festival Trip Thursday
 Chartered buses will take a number of Torrance area persons on a Washington's Birthday trip next Thursday to visit the annual Date Festival in Indio. Buses will leave at 10:30 a.m. from 154th and Van Ness, according to Elsa Stone, who is handling reservations. Cost of the trip, which includes fare and admission, will be $4.50, she said.

Camp Fire Girls Present Area Award to Recreation Official

Miss Marilyn Jensen and Mrs. Thomas G. Smith, adult volunteers from the Harbor District of the Los Angeles Area Council of Camp Fire Girls, were two of 13 recipients of Ernest Thompson Seton awards presented at the council's recent annual meeting. This award is given to board and district committee members in recognition of devoted service and contributions to the growth of the council. Three of 39 Wakan Service awards given by the council's National Awards Committee for outstanding work in districts were presented to Harbor District volunteers, Mrs. James David, Mrs. Charles McCormick, and Mrs. Lawrence Stevenson. MISS JENSEN of Torrance is out-going chairman of the Harbor District. Her Seton award citation commends her for her plans to enrich the program on a district-wide basis as well as within groups, and for her leadership in helping volunteers take full responsibility for their committee operations. She was also commended for her accomplishments in helping professional groups achieve greater understanding of the Camp Fire program. Mrs. Smith of San Pedro has served as district committee secretary, public relations chairman, and Community Chest chairman. She was commended for "keeping a sharp public eye in this district for the past 10 years." THE SETON award commends her assistance in "capturing community interest at recruiting people to committees within the district." Mrs. Edward Ellis, Hawthorne, was elected chairman of the Harbor District at this meeting, and William H. Avarell of San Pedro was re-elected secretary of the council's board of directors.
