

Camp Fire Girls Salute Air for Area Service

At a delightful Sunday afternoon tea, the Okita Camp Fire Girls honored Mrs. Hiro Muranaka and Miss Cynthia Keyes for their devotion and service to the children of the Harbor Area.

Appreciation for Mrs. Muranaka's many years of service to the children of Torrance through the PTA was expressed on behalf of the group by Linda Mayeda. Mrs. Muranaka is a past president of the Howard Wood Parent-Teacher Assn. and currently is serving on the PTA boards of Howard Wood, South High School, Torrance Council, and 33rd District. The Wood PTA sponsors the Okita group.

COLLEEN DONOVAN presented the group's feelings of gratitude to Miss Keyes for the exceptionally fine work that she has done over the years and the keen interest she always has shown in the welfare of youth. Miss Keyes presently is serving as the Harbor District Field Director for Camp Fire Girls, Los Angeles Area Council. She is a former Camp Fire Girl who has devoted her life to the Camp Fire organization.

The girls of the group also surprised their guardian, Mrs. James A. Davis, by honoring her for the service she has performed for Camp Fire Girls as sponsor, assistant leader and, finally, guardian of their group, as well as having served as chairman of the Harbor District Leaders' Assn. for two years.

ALSO HONORED by the group was Miss Edith M. Kempthorne, the first field director of Camp Fire Girls, now retired and residing in New Zealand. Miss Linda Kern, member of the Ad Astra Horizin Club, presented a brief summary of Miss Kempthorne's services to Camp Fire Girls, and all the girls contributed to the Kempthorne fund. Monies so received are used for extension of the Camp Fire program.

Other guests at the tea were Mrs. Ted Donovan, Hayward Johnson, Delmer Kern, Guardian of the Iyopta Camp Fire Girls, Robert Keyes, who is visiting here from Minneapolis, Minn.; B. Lassere, M. C. Leaf, mother of Mrs. Davis, and J. Mayeda.

Science Specimens Go to High Schools members received beads for the many honors they have earned in recent months.

Distribution of more than 1,800 earth science specimens to public and private schools in the El Camino College District was announced yesterday by the college on behalf of the school's geology faculty.

The prepared sets of individual specimens consist of rocks, ores, and casts of fossil types are being made available to district schools that request them. There will be no charges involved, and the schools may keep them for use and display, the announcement said.

Distribution of the specimens is intended as an introduction to the wonders of earth science study, school officials said. The sets include petrified wood, dinosaur bone, volcanic rocks, metaphoric rocks, lead and copper ore, and a number of Palos Verdes rocks which can help teachers with identification problems.

An accompanying fact sheet of information gives basic identification of the specimens and a brief description of each, of officials said.

The sets were prepared from items collected by faculty members and friends of El Camino College.

Police Now In Training

Six recently appointed Torrance Police officers are scheduled to be graduated from a 16-week basic law enforcement training program at the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Academy on April 6, it was announced yesterday by Chief Percy G. Bennett.

Officers now attending classes at the academy include Robert C. Adams, Robert M. Armstrong, Donald Feil, Eugene F.

Guest, Chester J. Lyman, and Donald M. Morrison.

Armstrong was formerly a police officer in the city of South Pasadena, and Guest has served as an enforcement officer for the U. S. Treasury Department, and as a policeman in Atlanta, Ga.

Lyman was a manufacturer of surf boards before joining the force, and Morrison was a police officer in Beverly Hills.
