Education Drive Opened on Cancer

The beginning of a new American Cancer Society life-saving education campaign, Project Seven, has been announced by three Torrance women's clubs and Project Seven Chairman for the American Cancer Society, Mrs. Charles Gilkison. The three local clubs participating are South Bay Y Wives, Walteria Business Women's Club, and Women of the Moose, No. 44.

"The name Project Seven stands for the seven cancer danger signals," stated Mrs. Gilkison. "These three clubs are going to take different sections of Torrance and will distribute medicine cabinet stickers with the seven danger signals imprinted during the two weeks from March 18 to March 31.

THE WOMEN of the Moose, No. 44, under the direction of Mrs. Clifford Grenier, will cover the downtown area of Torrance. Mrs. Elmer Doage, president of the Walteria Business Women's Club, announced her group would cover Wal-

Rosemary DeCamp on Brown Campaign Team

Rosemary DeCamp Shidler, prominent actress and TV personality and a resident of Torrance, was named an area co-chairman to assist in directing the campaign for re-election of Gov. Edmund G. Brown. Miss DeCamp will work with Dave Selcer of Long Beach in heading up the campaign organization in the Harbor Area.

"Since women began carrying those big purses, more and more homes are being built without attics."
