

Armed Forces

Three soldiers from Torrance recently participated in the combined arms phase of the two-week 4th Armored Division field training exercises in the Grafenwohr-Hohenfels area of Germany.

They were Pfc. John W. Cavanaugh, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bingham, live at 2316 Cypress St., Lomita; Pfc. James W. Jones Jr., whose parents live at 26348 Ozon Ave., Harbor City, and Pfc. Donald R. Sanger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe. O. Sanger of 17115 Atkinson St.

CAVANAGH, a driver in Company A of the division's 67th Armor in Furth, entered the Army in December 1959, completed basic training at Ft. Ord and arrived overseas in May 1960.

The 19-year-old soldier attended Narbonne High School. Jones, a rifleman in Company A of the division's 41st Infantry in New Ulm, entered the Army in April 1960, completed basic training at Ft. Ord, and arrived overseas the following September.

The 25-year-old soldier is a 1954 graduate of Narbonne High School, Lomita, and was employed by the Douglas Aircraft Corp., Lakewood, before entering the Army.

SANGER, a driver in Troop A of the division's 15th Cavalry in Schwabach, entered the Army in August 1960, completed basic training at Ft. Ord and arrived overseas in January 1961.

The 18-year-old soldier attended North High School. The exercises stressed the ability of infantry, artillery, armor and logistical support units to work together under combat conditions. Training of this nature is designed to maintain a constant state of combat readiness.

Specialist Four Gustavo P. Sanchez, son of Gustavo B. Sanchez, 18528 Falda Ave., was a member of the Granite City, Ill., Engineer Depot team which participated in the Fifth Army Basketball Tournament held at Ft. Riley, Kan., recently.

Teams from 19 military installations in the 13-state Fifth

Army area participated in the tournament.

Regularly assigned to the depot's 738th Engineer Company, he entered the Army in April 1960 and completed basic training at Ft. Ord.

The 25-year-old soldier is a 1955 graduate of Torrance High School.

Airman Basic Richard J. Moore Jr., whose parents reside at 17321 Fonthill Ave., is being assigned to the United States Air Force technical training course for aircraft maintenance specialists at Sheppard AFB, Tex.

Airman Moore, who has completed his basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex., was selected for the advanced course on the basis of his interests and aptitudes.

The airman is a 1961 graduate of Bishop Montgomery High School.

Edward D. Strong, seaman, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Strong of 23845 Park St.; Robert L. Baker, machinist's mate third class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis W. Baker of 624 14th St., and John W. Zuber, seaman apprentice, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Zuber of 1571 W. 218th St., are serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Coral Sea, which arrived in Yokosuka, Japan, recently.

The Coral Sea, on a 7½-month tour of duty in the Western Pacific, is the flagship for Task Force 77, which includes all attack aircraft carriers in the Far East.

Airman Third Class William H. Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Hiltzenger of 20622 S. Earl, is being assigned to Otis AFB, Mass., following his graduation from the United States Air Force technical training course for aircraft engine mechanics at Sheppard AFB.

Airman Hughes studied the operation and maintenance of reciprocating aircraft engines and related systems. The airman, a graduate of Redondo Union High School, is married to the former Jeannine I. Leimbach of 714 Vincent Park, Redondo Beach.
