South Bay Oracles Club Assists Local Charities

South Bay Oracles and Past Oracles Club is a fraternal organization composed of members from San Pedro, Redondo Beach, Culver City, Ocean Park, Inglewood, Gardena and Torrance Camps of Royal Neighbors. The club meets at the Western Club in Gardena on the second Monday of each month. Every fourth month a dinner meeting is held at 7 p.m. The next meeting will be April 9 with the Inglewood Camp as hostess.

Active in assisting charitable organizations in the area during the past three years, the project was started in 1959 under the supervision of Mrs. Belva Brase of the Torrance Camp. In that year, money was given to the San Pedro branch for Mentally Retarded children.

In 1960, Mrs. Mary Belangee of San Pedro was president and the group assisted the Garden Valley Assn. for Mentally Retarded Children. In 1961, Mrs. Lillian Wundrow was president and the group aided the John Tracy Clinic and the Garden Valley Assn. During the year, wool was donated by Mrs. Lucille Sloan of Gardena and was knitted into an afghan by Mrs. Mary Belangee, 83 years old. Money from the afghan and other projects provided the group with funds to aid both clinics.

Guests at a recent club meeting were Kendrick Watson, assistant vice president of the John Tracy Clinic, and

Diana Board Discusses Philanthropy

The March board meeting of the Redondo Beach Dianas, California Federation of Women's Clubs, Junior Membership, Marina district, was held this week at the home of Mrs. Sheldon Goldenson. Mrs. Paul Taylor, president, introduced Diana co-ordinators Mmes. Don Beach, Curt Richardson, and Charles Bougmont.

Letters were received from the following clubs who had sent a contribution to the cancer fund in memory of Mrs. Irmadele Rous: Seal Beach Juniors, $259, proceeds from benefit program; Lancaster Juniors, Palo Alto Juniors, Sacramento Juniors, Northbrae Juniors, and Tracy Juniors.

Mrs. Ted Kerwin, philanthropy chairman, announced a bowling party was held for 15 youngsters of the Garden Valley Association, at the Missile Bowl in Gardena. Whistle balls were given to all the children from the Dianas as a memento of their bowling party. Dianias who drove the children to and from the school were Mmes. John Hansford, Christ Saunders, Reynolds Gorsuch, and Ted Kerwin.

Mrs. Reynolds Gorsuch, civic service chairman, announced that clothing will be collected for Girl's Town in La Paz, Baja, Calif.

Mrs. Paul Taylor displayed the "certificate of recognition" the Dianas received at Community Health Week luncheon, for 500 hours of work at the well-baby clinic.

Mrs. Max Stern from the Garden Valley Assn. Both spoke on their work and Mrs. Stern said that most of the money received will go to a building fund for the Garden Valley Assn. home.

Mrs. Mary Chiara of the Torrance Camp is president for 1962 and has plans for several worthy charities.

PTA ACTIVITIES

Torrance High

"Frontiers in Music—the International Language" is the theme for the Torrance High School Parent-Teacher Association meeting Wednesday, April 11 at 7:30 in the auditorium, according to Mrs. Paul Roberts, president.

The Spring Music Festival program will feature the Girls Glee directed by Miss Bonnie Hall, the Band directed by George Knights, and the Tartar Choir directed by Mrs. Kathryn Loftus.

This program promises to be an outstanding musical treat, according to Dr. Carl R. Ahee, principal.

223rd Street

The 223rd St. School's "Spring Concert" will be presented at Tuesday's PTA meeting in the school auditorium from 7 to 9 p.m., under the direction of Miss Carole Smith, music teacher. In keeping with the well chosen topic "An Evening With Music," parents will lend an ear as music fills the air and choral groups sing out. Opening number will be "God Bless America" by soloist, Christine Bareik; Primary Chorus will sing, "Jumping Rope" and "Circus Parade;" Intermediate Chorus will render "Space Ship" and "Dump-lins," a West Indies Calipso Song; adding color to this delightful number will be calipso artist, Dale Hoffman.

Senior Chorus will deliver "Desert Song," accompanied by the auto harp and finger symbols. Special arrangements by the school orchestra will be, "Sourwood Mountains," "Village Festival" and "Indian Lament," followed by orchestra member Ray Singer, Clarinet soloist. Combined orchestra and three choruses join the Grand Finale in "America The Beautiful."

Caroldale

Caroldale PTA will hold a spaghetti supper in conjunction with the Open House on Tuesday evening April 10 from 6 to 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Shirley Guss, of the school cafeteria personnel will make the spaghetti sauce for the supper. The public is invited.

Plant Trees To Observe Anniversary

I-Yo-Pta Camp Fire Girls took part in the planting of the Flame Tree Forest at Harbor Regional Park on March 24. The girls helped plant 1134 trees, in celebration of Camp Fire Girls 50th anniversary.

The group recently visited the International airport; a paper drive is in progress to help finance a trip to Catalina; and bandana bags are being made and filled with school supplies for the Indian children in the High Andes.

A camping trip to O'Neil Park near Santa Ana was an enjoyable experience on March 31 and April 1. The girls brought dolls from other lands and told about them. Foods of other lands were served. Honor beads were presented. Margo Marsh received the intermediate swimming award. Memory books are now being completed for Wood Gatherer's Rank for which they will receive recognition at the Harbor District Council Fire at Torrance Park on May 25.

Members of the group are Vickie West, Karen Kern, Virginia Gagne, Theresa Joyce, Jeanette Shoberg, Aana Flynn, Linda and Karen Karaszewski, Margo Marsh and Wendy Lofland. Guardian of the group is Mrs. Delmer Kern.

Spring Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Davis, 1225 Fern Ave. have returned from a three weeks vacation. They visited Phoenix, Ariz. and Death Valley.
