Carnival Date Set By College

El Camino College's annual Welfare Carnival will set its gears in operation May 11-12 on the football stadium parking lot on Redondo Beach Blvd., Wayne Hren, general chairman of the event, announced yesterday.

A college community enterprise, the carnival is open to the public and students alike. College club booths, thrill rides and exhibits will highlight the two-day activity.

"The college holds this carnival each year for three reasons," Hren said. "Number one and perhaps the most important, to promote better community relations. Another important aspect is the money gathered for charity and finally to help the campus clubs increase their treasuries," Hren added.

NER TAMID TO MEET FRIDAY

Congregation Ner Tamid, South Bay's Conservative synagogue, will hold services Friday evening at 8:30 at the Redondo Beach Women's Club, 400 S. Broadway, Redondo Beach. Rabbi Bernard Wechsberg will speak on "A Measure of History." The Sisterhood will host an Oneg Shabbat following the service.

Square Dance Classes Starting Saturday

A beginners square dance class will be open this Saturday and again May 5 at Alondra Park, 3535 Redondo Beach Blvd. Children ages 6 to 16 will meet from 5 to 7 p.m. with the adult class following from 7 to 10. Peggy and Noble Spees are instructors.

Methodist Guild Holds April Dinner

Wesleyan Service Guild held its monthly dinner-meeting April 17 at the First Methodist Church in Fellowship Hall.

It was the annual birthday meeting, and the four tables were decorated to represent the four quarters of the year encompassing every member's birthday. Thirty-four members were present. A birthday offering was observed.

Mrs. Katherine Baker, chairman of the nominating committee, gave the slate of officers for the coming year. The installation will be held at the May meeting.

Mrs. Ethel Hutchison was in charge of the program which commemorated Holy Week by a candlelight service. She was assisted by Mrs. Catherine Baker, Mrs. Marjorie Champion, Miss Pauline Greer, Mrs. Chelcia Shelby, Miss Irene Steele, and Miss Olive Marshall.

Following the program, Mrs. Betty Harrison gave a book report on the "Meaning of Suffering."
