Ann Landers

it will work when he gets out in the world.
Sit up straight, and keep your answers to yourself.

Dear Ann Landers: My wife and I were married six years ago. I work for a company that believes in transferring personnel. We have moved three times.

My wife has a trunk filled with love letters, dance souvenirs, pictures of old boy friends, and a lot of junk connected with her high school and college days. Whenever we move I see this trunk and it sort of makes me mad.

Wouldn't you think that after six years and two children she would be able to part with it? When I got married I threw out the little black book, the letters, pictures, and everything of that nature.

We are going to move again in August. Should I say something this time? — BUZZ

Dear Buzz: Say nothing. A woman who hangs on to "junk of that nature" needs support for a sagging ego. One of these years when you move she'll get rid of all the old trash. Then you'll know she has really grown up.

Are you going steady? Making marriage plans? If so, send for ANY LANDERS' booklet, "Before You Marry — Is It Love Or Sex?" enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.
Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Celebrate 'May Day' At Carson

Cha-Cha, Hop Mor Annika, Miserlou, and Zaplet Kolo are some of the many dances to be demonstrated Friday, May 4, at 10 a.m. at the Carson Street School playground, announces Mrs. Sophia Palmer, physical education chairman. The theme of this year's May Day celebration is "Dance! Nations! Dance!" stressing American patriotism. The kindergarten classes will start the program with "A Visit to my Little Friend," an American interpretive dance. Each group of grades, one through six, will present its dance in order, with the sixth grade dancing the very colorful Zaplet Kolo, a Serbian circle dance, representing Yugoslavia.

The finale will be a physical fitness program presented by the fourth grades and a "Grand March" to the tune of "Stars and Stripes Forever" by the fifth and sixth grades.

Following the program, the school will have an Open House. The public is cordially invited, states Mrs. M. Q. Wallace, principal.

To World's Fair

Recent celebrants at the Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodruff of Torrance, who entertained a group of friends prior to their departure for the Seattle World's Fair. The dinner gathering included Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Woodruff of Tucson, Ariz.
