Parents Entertained By Kleka Camp Fire Girls

Kleka Camp Fire Girls entertained their families at the home of Mrs. G. E. Salisbury, 16823 Glenburn Ave., Wednesday, April 18.

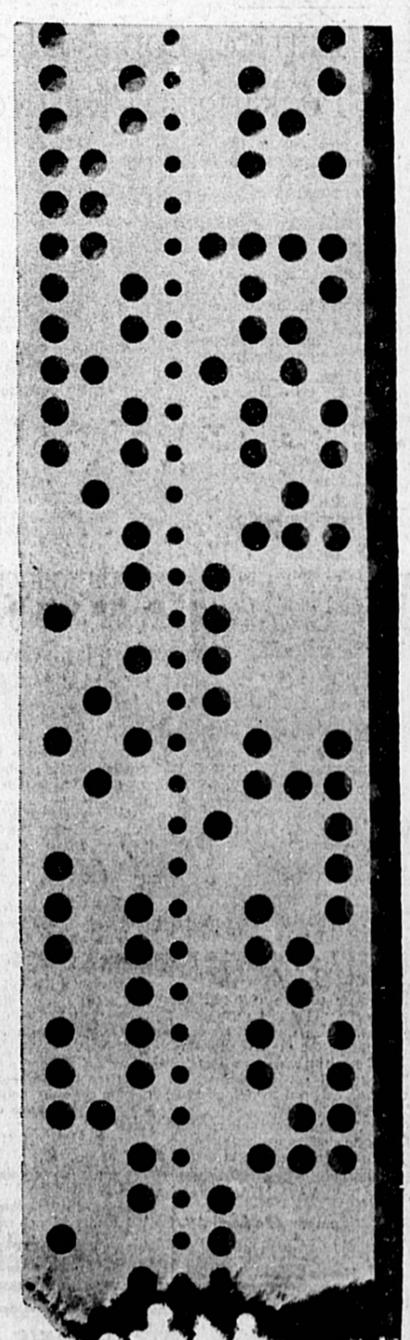

Prior to dinner, the girls presented a program: "Let's Get Together" was done by Janice Johnson on guitar accompanied by Dallas Boyko on piano; solo sung by Linda Salisbury "Rock a Bye Your Baby with a Dixie Melody;" Hawaiian dance "Lovely Hula Hands" by Karen Miller; Emma Giardano played a piano selection; and Ellie Coudry was mistress of ceremonies.

Using Easter as their theme the dining tables were decorated with yellow and orchid colored sugar Easter eggs made and decorated by the girls. The eggs were nestled on green Easter grass surrounded by multicolored candy eggs. Various colored hard boiled eggs were fashioned into bunnies and used as placecards.

The buffet supper was served from a table decorated by a huge Easter Egg Tree. A "Happy Easter" banner greeted the guests as they entered the dining area. After the supper Camp Fire fashions were modeled climaxed by Emma Giardano appearing as a Camp Fire Girl in her Easter finery. Her dress was of shrimp colored nylon over tulle, topped with a white pile waist length jacket. Her hat was of white straw, with white gloves, bag, and shoes completing her ensemble.

The girls planned, prepared, and served the buffet as part of their Camp Fire Requirements. Memory books are now being completed for their Wood Gatherer's Rank for which they'll receive recognition at the Harbor District Council Fire on May 25.

Guardian of the group is Mrs. Gerald E. Salisbury and Assistant Guardian is Mrs. Stephen Boyko.
