

Rivierans to Hear About Ill-Fated Island Paradise.

Riviera Home Owners Assn. will meet Monday at 8 p.m. at Parkway School. Principal speaker will be Charles Hillinger, feature writer of the Los Angeles Times, who will tell about the colonists on the Galapagos Islands. Two years ago, dozens of couples from the Seattle area with a desire to get away from the very busy world, settled on an island to find peace. They organized a company, bought two old freighters, and sailed with their children to the Galapagos Islands off the coast of Ecuador. Their interesting experiences on the island, their joys and sorrows, and finally the complete failure of the expedition will be described and shown in pictures by Hillinger.

Formerly called the Hollywood Riviera Homeowners Assn., it has changed its name to Riviera Homeowners Assn. and is now made up of all property owners in the entire Riviera. All residents are invited to the program and are urged to join the association. Officers are John W. Johnson, president; John Haidinger, vice president; Mrs. Louis Kaplan, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Hopkins, secretary, and Mrs. Robert Katherman, corresponding secretary. The executive board includes Karl Stefek, Dick Dodge, Bob Sullivan, David Halstead and Thomas

RIVIERA LODGE 1873, Loyal Order of Moose, will hold its installation of officers Friday, May 11, at 7 p.m. at the new Lodge Hall, 112 1/2 N. Catalina, Redondo Beach. The Manhattan Beach "Pal-Mates," a teen-age club of the Moose organization, will conduct the ritual. The installing officer will be Deputy Supreme Governor Ted Stano from Moose Heart, Ill. Among the dignitaries present will be Ernest Arringdale, state president of the Moose Lodge; Raymond Hoffman, district president; and Dan Quigley, district vice president. Governor of the Riviera Lodge is Robert Clark.

THE HOLLYWOOD Riviera Rotary Club will meet today at noon at the Plush Horse Restaurant. President Jack Whiting announced that students from Redondo Beach school will present the program in observance of Public Schools Week.

LAS COLINAS Garden Club will meet Monday at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Sidney Hall, 4906 Calle de Arboles. The speaker will be "Doc" Holton and his topic will be "Spring Garden Plans." Co-hostess for the meeting will be Mrs. Owen O'Brien.

THE HOLLYWOOD Riviera Bridge Club met Saturday evening, April 14. Group 1 was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Jones of Sea View. Attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Gene Bostrom, Bob Weinburg, and Bill McNairn. Winners were: the Bostroms, first place, and Weinburgs, second.

Group 2 met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pelton, 5214 Paseo de Pablo. Those attending included Messrs. and Mmes. Robert Hunt, Samuel Conte, and Mrs. Trudi Anderson and her son, Dr. Anderson. The Contes were first place winners and the Hunts second.

AN organizational meeting of the Committee of Rivierans who will conduct the drive for funds for the cerebral palsy program took place last week at the home of Mrs. Michael Walsh, 5401 Calle de Arboles. Plans to hold door-to-door solicitation on Saturday, May 12th, were formulated. Mrs. William Raab, Riviera area chairman, has on her committee Mmes. Michael Walsh, Greg Schiller, Jack Heglin, Webb Morrow, Donald Hoffman, Thomas Roach, Robert Lautersung, and Donald Cortum.

Volunteers are needed to make this worthy charity a success and any interested parties should contact any of those listed above.

DR. AND MRS. Charles Hopkins, Camino de Encanto residents, enjoyed a four-day stay at the Catamaran Hotel on Mission Bay in San Diego recently where Dr. Hopkins attended a technical symposium. Dr. Hopkins is chairman of the first International Congress on Human Factors being held today and tomorrow in Long Beach at the Lafayette Hotel.

MRS. JACK GOETZ, 147 Via los Miradores, entertained a group of friends and neighbors at a buffet luncheon and bridge party last Wednesday. A lavender and yellow Easter color scheme set the theme. Among those attending were Mmes. Al Geiser, Truman Adkins, E. E. Wilson, William Kofahl, Jack Leopold, Arthur Cunningham, Ivan McElroy, R. J. Armitage, Joseph Hadad, Donald Edwards, Ralph Reefor, Willett Rowlands, Albert Marzilli, George McKaig, and Phillip Ward.

MR. AND MRS. R. A. Carlton and their two sons, 152 Via la Circula, have just returned from a vacation in Hawaii. Staying at the Reef Hotel in Honolulu, the family enjoyed surfing and outrigger canoeing at Waikiki Beach. They also visited the island of Maui.

VIA MONTE D'ORO residents, Mrs. Carl Rogers and her daughter, Jan, are in Europe on a 25-day tour. They left by SAS April 18 and will visit London, Paris, Rome, Florence, Venice, Lucerne, Heidelberg, and Copenhagen. While in Florence they will visit Mr. Roger's son, Steven, who is studying at the overseas branch of Stanford University. This is Mrs. Rogers' first trip to Europe. She traveled to Japan in 1957 as an official delegate of the city of Torrance.

TERMITE TRAPS Before long the termite who nibbles at decayed wood may spell his own doom. Experimenters have found a substance in rotting wood that makes an effective bait to lure termites into traps.
