Senior Adult Group to Meet Here Tomorrow

The North Torrance senior adult group sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department will meet Friday at 1 p.m. at McMaster Park, Artesia and Yukon. Mothers Day will be observed; special refreshments will be served. A special invitation is extended to senior citizens of this area to attend the meetings each Friday from noon to 4:30 p.m. Each individual attending the May 18 meeting is requested to bring a suggestion of a name suitable for the new club. The proposed constitution will be read at this meeting. Elsa Stone, adviser of the group, announces that the election of officers is slated for Friday, June 1. For more information, contact McMaster Park, DA 4-9257 (Tuesday through Friday, noon to 2 p.m.), or Edith Simpelar at the Torrance Recreation Department, FA 8-5310, Ext. 263.

Harbor College Choir To Present 'Mikado'

Gilbert and Sullivan's opera, "The Mikado," will be presented by the Harbor College choir at two performances tonight and Friday evening at 8. The public is invited and there will be no admission charge. The performance will be held in the women's gymnasium on the Harbor College campus. Under the direction of Mrs. Kathryn Clauset, the following students are participating in the production: Richard Davison, Gene Benfer, Gary Batten, Ron Batten, Ed Bernardin, June Coffelt, Gail Winkler, Joy Mumford, Helen Wearley, Bernice Akens, Judy Spenger, Francine Hovde, and Carol Wilke.

Worker Hurts Foot

Samuel Coleman, 33, Los Angeles, was taken by ambulance to Little Company of Mary Hospital Tuesday morning after an object fell on his foot while he was working for a rubbish firm at a Little League field, Pacific Coast Highway and Crenshaw Boulevard.

AT ANNIVERSARY . . . Three plant supervisors at Union Carbide Chemicals Co. here have accumulated 25 years each with the company this year. From left, are Edward D'Anna Jr., industrial relations manager; Alex M. Hume, production supervisor in the polyethylene division, and Jack H. McGlothlin, gas separation area foreman.

Police Grab Youth After Foot Race

Police chased a juvenile two blocks about 11 p.m. Saturday near Torrance Memorial Hospital after he jumped from a patrol car where he had been ordered to sit after being involved in a fight. The youth suffered a three-inch laceration on his right elbow and was taken to Harbor General Hospital for treatment. The youth told police he had been involved in a fight at a dance and did not know how or who had cut him. Police said the youth was intoxicated and almost passed out several times. He also was very antagonistic towards officers, they added.

South High To Present Comedy Show

The Thespian Society of South High School in Torrance is presenting the hilarious family comedy, "Time Out for Ginger," May 11 and 12 at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria. The cast includes Richard Powers as Howard; Linda Addington and Val Shidler sharing the part of Ginger; Bonnie Howsley as Agnes; Vicki Hoffman as Joan; Michele Sullivan as Jeanie; Steven Bailey as Eddie; Richard Vogl as Tommy; Pierre Hathaway as Ed Hoffman; Winkie Gilbert as Liz and Don Hoppe as Mr. Wilson. The story involves a small town banker and the trouble he incurs when the youngest of his three daughters gets on the high school football team.
