

GETTING AN EARFUL . . . Bobbet King, Miss Armed Forces Day, gets an earful of tuba music as Ron Dutton, member of the Torrance High School Tartar Band oomps-pahs. Looking on at the left is Myra McCartney, a princess for the Armed Forces Day celebration. The Tartar Band will be among the musical units marching in Saturday's Armed Forces Day parade here.

PROCLAIMS CELEBRATION . . . Huge billboards which have been posted throughout the Southland point out that Torrance was celebrating Armed Forces Day with a huge parade and military equipment display get the once over from officials who will take a lead in producing Saturday's gala

North High Graduates Win Award for School

North High School will be presented an award of merit June 6 for outstanding achievement of its graduates at the University of Southern California.

The presentation will be made by Dr. Mildred Walker, director of school relations at UCLA, who will present the award at a Scholastic Awards Banquet.

SPEAKER WILL be Dr. E. V. Pullias, president of the county board of education and professor of higher education at USC. North's student council is sponsoring the banquet which will be held to award those students who have shown outstanding ability in a specific field in addition to general excellent achievement in all classes.

All students nominated and their parents will be invited to attend the banquet. The three semifinalists in each category will receive a Certificate of Merit. The top winner in each category will receive a 5-inch miniature trophy of "Sammy" Saxon.

THE NOMINEES are presently being selected by individual teachers and then will be screened by the Academic Progress Committee. The winners will be selected on their over-all grade average.

The areas from which the students will be selected are: Art, athletics, business education, drama, English, foreign language, G.A.A., graduate with highest grade point average, homemaking, industrial arts, publications, mathematics, music (band or vocal), P.E. (boy and girl), science, service to school (boy and girl), social studies, speech, student government and work experience.

City Receives License Fees

The city of Torrance has received $21,475 as its six-month share of the license fees, renewal fees, and fines paid by holders of alcoholic beverages licenses.

The payment was made by the state Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control which allocates 90 per cent of all fee monies back to individual cities and counties to be used for the many branches of services offered by local governments. The remaining 10 per cent goes into the state general fund.

The most recent payment was for the six-month period ending Feb. 28. Los Angeles County as a whole, including unincorporated areas, received $1,779,390 for the period.

A PACKAGE store beer and wine license costs the owner $37, with a yearly renewal fee of $12. A general on-sale tavern license costs $6,580 originally, with an annual renewal fee of $580, while a beer and wine only tavern license costs $234, renewable yearly for $84.

According to the California Brewers Assn., local governments throughout the state as a whole received $5,512,086 for the latest period which, coupled with the $3,981,021 received for the period ending Aug. 31, 1961, makes an annual total of $9,493,107.

Torrance Co-ed Club Sets Discussion Receives Honor

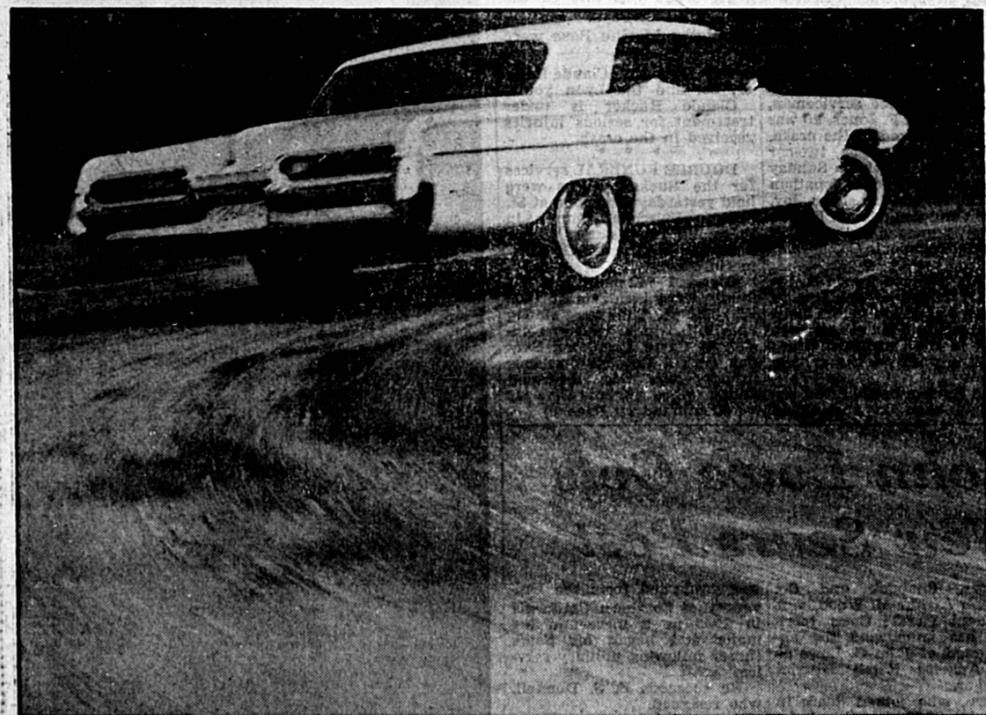

Rita Anne Gerrity of Torrance was among 100 "Outstanding Independents of 1961-62" selected by the Independent Students Assn. at the University of Oklahoma.

Miss Gerrity, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Gerrity, 22618 Greenwood Ave., is a freshman in the University College.

The Californians for Goldwater, South Bay Chapter, will meet today at the Smith Bros. Fish Shanty in Waverly. The meeting which is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. will have Dr. Anthony Butkovich as guest speaker and the topic of his speech will be "Tito and Soviet Russia."

Dr. Butkovich, Croatian born, graduated with a doctorate in law and political science from the University of Graz, in Austria. He fled his homeland during the uprising and has first-hand experience of the terrors of Communism. He has been lecturing coast to coast since 1951, and recently returned from a 15-month trip around the world. At present, Dr. Butkovich is teaching political science and European history at Marymount College.
