I know I love him, Ann, but do I want a man who would run me in a contest? What assurance do I have that something like this will not happen again? Please help me to see the light.

Dear Bin: If you love the guy, forget the past and make no reference to the other woman or to his absence. Start the romance anew. A good second beginning could lead to a happy ending.

Does almost everyone have a good time but you? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How to Be Well-Liked," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
