YMCA Prepares for Annual Summer Trips

In less than three weeks Torrance youngsters will begin their annual pilgrimages to the wilderness areas of the Western States with the Torrance Family YMCA. Joe Wilcox, executive secretary for the "Y", reports that volunteer counselors have completed a thorough training course; more than $8,000 worth of camp grub has been purchased; the new YMCA bus is being readied; and, more than a thousand local boys and girls have registered for one of the 22 camp sessions conducted by the local youth agency.

WILCOX ISSUED a final call for the camp sessions scheduled early in the summer vacation, such as the Glen Canyon Caravan to Grand Canyon, Hoover Dam, Zion National Park, Navajo Indian Country, and, of course, the construction site of the huge Glen Canyon Dam.

This trip departs on the first day following school, as does the Gold Country Caravan for teenaged boys also. On the next day, June 17, 50 teenaged girls will depart for the Torrance YMCA'S Sequoie-Yosemite Caravan.

Other trips scheduled early in the holidays are the two caravans to the Seattle World's Fair from July 2 to 23. Both boys and girls will explore the scenic spots of the Pacific Northwest on these "Y" excursions.

WILCOX STATED that there are nine openings for boys 13 and older and four for girls 14 and older for the long treks this summer.

Other Torrance YMCA camps visit the San Bernardino mountains; the High Sierra; Yosemite National Park; Sacramento River; Wrightwood; Little Lakes Valley, and other wilderness spots.

Reservations are being taken at the Torrance Family YMCA office at 2080 Washington Ave. and information is available by calling FAirfax 8-1721.

SUMMER SCENE . . . Y Camper Jim Griffin receives fishing tips from David Losey, YMCA staff member. The scene will be a typical one this summer as Torrance boys and girls take part in Y camp sessions and trips.

Young GOP Club Gives Chapel Aid

The South Bay Young Republican Club voted at its May monthly meeting to donate $1,500 to the campaign fund of Charles E. Chapel. Chapel, who was the club's speaker of the evening, is running for re-election as Assemblyman from the 46th District.

Climaxing the end of a two hour address by the incumbent Assemblyman, Chapel was obviously surprised but pleased with the strong financial backing of the South Bay YR's. "This is the first time in my political career that I ever received more than $50 from a club," smiled Chapel. Don Meslig, club president, said later: "The 1,500 donation was one way the members of our club could show their gratitude to Charlie for consistently acting and voting in Sacramento for the true Republican principles

Until it hatches, you can't always tell. But some things you want to be sure of—in advance. For instance, your savings. You want to be sure that they're safe. That they'll grow. That they'll hatch exactly the way you've planned. When it comes to your nest egg, you want just one thing: a bank.

Morning Report:

In spite of myself, I'm almost getting to feel sorry for Billie Sol Estes. It's tough enough to stop being a Texas multimillionaire overnight, losing your two Cadillacs and all your powerful friends.

But as of now he is being investigated by four Grand Juries, two Senate committees, the Department of Agriculture, the Revenue Service, the Attorney General and the FBI. And no one is telling me that all those battle-ready Marines are just for Thailand. Meanwhile, he has also been indicted for violating the antitrust laws.

As the President said, just ask what your Government can do to you and you'll find out.
