IN ANOTHER accident over the weekend, Robert P. Martinez, 7, of 25536 Marigold Ave., Harbor City, was killed Sunday in Lomita when he was struck by a car driven by Charles Gonzales, 20, of 24621 Cypress St., Lomita, according to the Highway Patrol.

The accident occurred at Lomita Boulevard and Woodward Avenue.

Two persons in a convertible sedan were injured Sunday night when the car in which they were riding turned over on Arlington Avenue south of Del Amo Boulevard.

THE DRIVER, James Leslie Waugh, 21, of Hawthorne, was booked at the County General Hospital in Los Angeles for felony drunk driving after being treated at Harbor General Hospital.

His passenger, Antonio Lopez, 24, of Gardena, was thrown from the car as it turned over and was pinned underneath. Police and bystanders lifted the vehicle to free Lopez, who was also taken to Harbor General Hospital. He suffered internal injuries, bruises and burns while Waugh suffered injuries to his right shoulder.

The accident occurred about 8:15 p.m.

... Nixon

great Nixon on his Monday visit to Torrance Headquarters will be John Wren, Torrance attorney and co-chairman of the Torrance Nixon effort. Torrance Headquarters is located at 1307 Post Avenue across the street from the Torrance Bank of America parking lot. Campaign material including bumper strips and Nixon buttons will be distributed, Wren said. Mr. Nixon will autograph cards for as many visitors as time will allow, Wren promised.

Co-chairman Boris Woolley announced plans for a Bumper Blitz set for this weekend. Nixon supporters will invade local business districts and shopping centers to distribute bumper strips to willing Nixonites. It is expected that hundreds of bumper strips will be distributed during the blitz, Woolley stated.

OTHER headquarters people on hand for the Nixon visit will be Margaret Woolley, finance chairman, Betty Haddad, special activities chairman; Jean Clauson, public relations chairman; Jean Wren, headquarters chairman; and committee members Beverly Thomas, Joan Thompson, Joyce Turner, Gladis Waage, Virginia Worchester, Mary Lou Carpenter, and Ione Harbick. Torrance Nixonettes, an activity composed of high school age, will add color and enthusiasm to the ceremonies and festivities, Woolley said.

DRESSED in white shirt-maker blouses and full skirts, Nixon hats, Nixon banners, and blue and gold pom poms, the Nixonettes act as hostesses while distributing campaign material and literature.

The Torrance headquarters, at 1307 Post Ave., may be called by telephoning FA 0-5306 or FA 0-5246.

Vote-Mobile

To Return On Saturday

Final visit of the Vote-Mobile sponsored by the Provisional League of Women Voters of Torrance has been scheduled for Saturday at various Torrance shopping centers.

Concise, impartial election information and candidates' questionnaire will be made available as a nonpartisan voters' service by the Torrance organization.

Saturday's schedule calls for stops at Shoppers Market, Pacific Coast Highway and Crenshaw, 10 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.; Food Giant at Pacific Coast Highway and Hawthorne Avenue from noon until 1:45 p.m.; at Akron's parking lot, 18020 Hawthorne Ave., 2 p.m. to 3:45 p.m.; and at Sav-On Drug Store parking lot, 5020 W. 190th St., from 4 p.m. until 6 p.m. Look upon every day as the whole of life, not merely as a section; and enjoy and improve the present without wishing, through haste, to rush on to another. — Jean Paul Richter
