

EL CAMINO COLLEGE

HELP US GROW VOTE

JUNE 5 1962

SEEKS HELP . . . Asking for help Tuesday is El Camino College (not the attractive coeds pictured above). Studying proposition G which pertains to the tax continuance sought by El Camino College Tuesday are Sandy Ernst (left) Miss El Camino, and Joyce Morris, Miss Warrior. The college seeks to continue its override tax to support the pay-as-you-go building program.

Zone Needs Study Slated

Preservation of a portion of Lomita Pines as a single-family residential neighborhood was assured by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors recently through the enactment of an urgency R-1 zoning ordinance.

The action was urged by Supervisor Burton W. Chace, who said he has received a petition from a majority of property owners in the neighborhood which is currently zoned R-2. Approximate boundaries of the area affected are 261st St., 264th St., Cayuga and Appian Way.

Civic Chorus Posts Filled

Two Torrance residents have been named officers in the Redondo Beach Civic Chorus. They are Jean Friedrich, who was named vice president, and Rae Francis, who was elected music librarian.

Membership in the chorus is open. Mrs. Friedrich said. Informal auditions are held each Monday from 7 to 7:45 p.m. with rehearsal following until 9:45.

The chorus is temporarily meeting in the Congregational Church in Redondo Beach, Broadway, and Emerald Ave. Information about the group may be obtained by telephoning Mrs. Friedrich at FR 5-7810.

Pastor Wells To Attend Convention

The Southern Baptist Convention will be meeting in its annual session in San Francisco on June 4-8. The Baptist Pastor's Conference and the Woman's Missionary Union will meet on Monday and Tuesday. The Convention sessions will continue through the morning session on June 8. The Pastor, Robert A. Wells, and his family, along with Loman Carter will attend as messengers from the local congregation. Some 15,000 Baptists are expected to attend.

THE NARBONNE Avenue Southern Baptist Church of Lomita is one of the more than 750 Southern Baptist Churches in California engaged in simultaneous revivals that will continue through today.

Dr. H. Guy Moore, pastor of the 5,000-member Broadway Baptist Church of Ft. Worth, Tex., is the preacher for the Lomita church.

TWO SERVICES will be conducted Sunday morning at 8:30 and 10:50. The new nursery will be open during these services.

The Lomita congregation will launch a new auditorium fund drive with a church-wide banquet on June 9. Delbert Vaughn has been elected to serve as chairman of the two-year fund drive. The speaker for the "Kick-off" Banquet will be Dr. O. Byron Richardson from Dallas, Tex. The goal is to begin erection of a 1,300-seat auditorium within the two-year period.

My method of reforming is by Laughing, not Storming.
—Jonathan Swift

Gem Society Meets Tuesday

Dan Brock, a member of the Compton Gem and Mineral Society, will speak on "A New Approach to Lapidary Work" Tuesday at a meeting of the Palos Verdes Gem and Mineral Society in Harbor City.

The meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m. at the Retail Clerks Hall, 15949 Belleporte Ave.
