Classes for Young Girls Open at YWCA

The YWCA announces a new session of activities for the younger girls 5-11 years of age. An entire day of activities from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. including a supervised lunch period, special programs to include mothers, pet show, guest day and others.

Classes include instruction in baton twirling, interpretive dance, drama, crafts and creative story telling.

All this for a small fee for the second little girl in the family. Emphasis will be on interpretive and at the end of the eight week session a special program will be given for the mothers. Instructor is Mrs. Galdys Nauman, well known in this area as an outstanding dance instructor. The purpose is to help the children express through dance their own ideas, feelings and give them grace of movement and poise.

Parents are invited to observe the program next Saturday. For additional information regarding fee or the schedule call the YWCA.

ATTEND INSTITUTE . . . Mrs. James Kimble, first vice president of the Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary packs in preparation for her trip to the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles where she and Mrs. James C. Anderson, president, will attend the Institute on Patterns and Principles for Auxiliary Leaders. The Institute, conducted by the American Hospital Assn. of Chicago, has been in session for the past three days.

Lochhead-Giles Vows Recited at Wayfarers

Miss Mary Kathleen Lochhead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lochhead of Redondo Beach, exchanged her wedding vows with Michael Reed Giles in a candlelight ceremony at the Wayfarers chapel in Portuguese Bend on May 19.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert R. Giles of Salt Lake City, formerly of Torrance.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white brocade wedding gown. A pearl tiara held her fingertip veil and she wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom. Her bouquet was a cascade of white carnations.

Mrs. Margaret Sattler was her sister's matron of honor. She wore blue chiffon and carried white flowers.

Harry E. Fralich was best man and Charles Beckert was an usher.

Rev. Kenneth Knox conducted the marriage ceremony. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon in San Francisco and are now living in Manhattan Beach.

The new Mrs. Giles was graduated from Glendale High school and is employed by MGM studios.

Her husband, a Torrance High school graduate, attended El Camino college. He is employed by Citizens National Bank in Redondo.

Local Couples In San Diego For Ceremonies

Edwin Abbott, a member of St. Gerard Council, Knights of Columbus, was received into the Fourth Degree Sunday at San Diego. Two hundred Knights in the Southern California area joined him in impressive rites at the El Cortez Convention Center in the Bishop Charles Buddy Class. After the ceremonies a march was held by one thousand fourth degree Knights to St. Joseph Cathedral where solemn Benediction was held. Later a banquet was held for the Knights and their wives.

Accompanying him were his wife and Messrs. and Mmes. Frank Paluch, Charles Butterfield, and Mike Shanahan, who spent the weekend at the El Cortez Hotel.

Mr. Abbott is now a member of the Father Have Assembly in Inglewood.

Bikinis for the feet

(at a scant $2.99)

You mean your toes aren't tan? Well, get with our new bikinis and let the sun go to work. Many of our bikinis are styled in the U.S.A. But some, like the second from the left are Italian imports (che bella). Most bikinis cost a lot for such a little. But from Mr. Thom, only $2.99. How do we do it? By being the best-selling shoe in all America. We can cut a lot of costs without cutting corners. We save. You save. And your toes get tan. Nice?
