Bloodmobile Gets 205 Pints of Blood

Blood given through Red Cross bloodmobiles in Torrance last week brought the total donations so far this year to 882 pints. At the community bloodmobile, held at the Elks club, 205 pints of blood were given by individuals specifying their contributions be credited either to their personal or group accounts with the Red Cross. While giving blood was new to some of those who turned out for the bloodmobile's visit, Mrs. Robert Orsini, blood recruitment chairman for the Torrance-Lomita branch of the Los Angeles Chapter of the Red Cross, reports Rev. Robert D. Dehn, First Baptist Church pastor, rolled up his sleeve in behalf of the Red Cross blood program for the 16th time.

They were Linda DeGregory, Beverly Hague, Patricia Holland, and Caron Rodax. Ten-year service pins were presented by Mrs. Orsini to veteran Red Cross volunteer staff aides, Mrs. B. Moyer and Mrs. Don Reining. Mrs. Loren Voien was awarded a five-year service bar for her work as a staff aide with the blood program. Local Scout On 'King For a Day'

Air Explorer Scout Steve Addington, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Addington, 3526 Madison Ct., was one of the four candidates appearing on the nationally televised ABC show Explorer Scout King for a Day Tuesday.

More than 800 representatives of the Air, Sea and Land Explorer Scouts in the Los Angeles area filled the audience of the Moulin Rouge studio for the special broadcast. Four candidates were selected, on the basis of "wishes," to be interviewed on the show by M.C. Jack Bailey. The King, Bob Castle of Santa Ana, was elected King by audience applause.

DURING HIS interview Steve told the audience that his wish was for help for a proposed Scout unit to be established in Anchorage, Alaska. Steve, 16, is an active member of Air Squadron 377 in Torrance. He told the audience that he has learned of the proposed unit, to be formed at a native hospital in Anchorage through an aunt living there. His wish specifically was for equipment and uniforms for the new scouts. Although he was not elected King in the audience voting, Steve joined the other candidates and King Bob on a "whirl" which included dinner with Angel Baseball manager Bill Rigney, and seats in the team dugout for an Angel game. Each candidate also received a transistor record player and an assortment of fishing equipment.

KING BOB'S wish was for a trip to Disneyland for a friend who is recovering from the results of an auto accident in which four members of his family were killed. His wish will be granted and he will receive many other gifts, including trips to bases of all three branches of the Armed Forces where he will meet the men who make up the first line of America's defense and space teams.
