Mr. and Mrs. A. Harold Littleton, 2854 Onrado St. were guests of honor at an open house in celebration of their silver anniversary recently. The couple was married May 22, 1937 at Holland, Mich. and have been residents of Torrance for the past ten years, coming here from Port Huron, Mich.

Mr. Littleton is a superintendent with the Kenneth Watts Sailmaking firm. He is past exalted ruler of the Torrance Elks Lodge and Mrs. Littleton is a past president of the Ladies of the Elks. Both are members of the First Christian Church. The couple are parents of two children, Cindy and Bobby.

For the open house the home was decorated with gift bouquets. The refreshment table was centered by a three tiered anniversary cake encircled by gardenias and flanked with white tapers. Center of attraction was the pool on which floated two white swans decorated with ribbons bows and surrounded by pastel water lilies.

Assisting at the open house were Mmes. William Whitehead, Johnnie Jones, Donald Thompson, Joseph Yates, Lambert Brownlee, Don Harding, Paul Warren, Leon Warne. Cindy Littleton was in charge of the guest book. Mr. and Mrs. Littleton plan to further their anniversary celebration with a trip to the World's Fair in August.

Former Resident Medical Wives

Mrs. Janet Dart Pomeroy, formerly of Torrance and Inglewood, has been elected to serve as president of the Yale Medical Wives Society for the coming year. Mrs. Pomeroy and her husband, Howard Courtland Pomeroy are both graduates of El Camino College where Mr. Pomeroy was president of the Omicron fraternity and Mrs. Pomeroy was active in sorority and campus affairs.

Mr. Pomeroy was later graduated from UCLA and this fall enters his junior year at the Yale University in New Haven, Conn.

Mrs. Jamieson To Wellesley

Mrs. H. F. Jamieson, 1804 Gramercy Ave., Torrance, is among the 1,100 alumnae returning to Wellesley College for the annual Wellesley Weekend, June 7-10. Members of 14 classes from 1897 to 1957 will hold reunions, coming to the campus in Wellesley, Mass., from 42 states, including Hawaii, and from Canada, Mexico, the Netherlands, Switzerland, Taiwan, and the Virgin Islands.

Joan Fuscoe to Begin Teaching

Joan Fuscoe of 2400 Nearcliff, Torrance, has been named to the Dean's List for academic excellence at Marymount College.

She received her degree in recent commencement exercises on the Palos Verdes Estates campus, and will begin a career as a teacher this September.

... Sprout

Mrs. Sprout moved into their lovely home at 2250 West 239th St. This home was built by Mr. Sprout and his son, Richard Sprout.

Mr. and Mrs. Sprout were among the first members of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church when it was being formed as a mission. Mrs. Sprout was active in establishing the first ladies' guild, now known as St. Margaret's Guild. Mr. Sprout became a Master Mason in 1919 and was Master in 1923. At present, he is the second oldest living Past Master of Torrance Lodge 447. Mrs. Sprout became a member of the Eastern Star in 1924.

"Jess," as he is known to his many friends, retired from The National Supply Co. in November 1954. He immediately held a major part in construction of the new Torrance Masonic Lodge building on Cabrillo Avenue. In August 1959, the National Supply Management Club awarded him the "Mug of the Month" for outstanding contributions to the National Supply Co.

At Sunday's open house, the Rev. Hugh Percy, pastor of St. Andrew's administered a special marriage blessing as the couple repeated their vows. Standing with the bride was her attendant at her wedding, her sister, Mrs. Capo. Mr. Sprout presented his bride with a new diamond ring.

A beautifully decorated anniversary cake centered the dining table from which refreshments were served by the honored couple's grandchildren. A gold and white money tree was among the many gifts received.

Tuesday evening, the anniversary couple was honored at a surprise dinner party at the Jump'n Jack restaurant attended by 25 family members.

Weekend Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bever, 2520 Eldorado had as their weekend houseguests Mrs. Pauline Raines of Long Beach and Mrs. Muffitt Charon of Alhambra.

Arrives to Spend Summer

Ricky Hill arrived aboard the SS Hugh Gaffey in San Francisco Tuesday and came to Torrance Tuesday night to spend the summer here with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Whittington, 1441 W. 220th St.

Ricky has spent the past year in Yokosuka, Japan with his mother, Mrs. Alice Hill Wilson and Mr. Wilson, who are stationed there with the United States Navy. Ricky was born in Torrance and was attending Fleming Junior High when he left for Japan.

Here for Visit

Mrs. Grace Hooper of Oakland, formerly of Torrance, has arrived to spend a month here visiting old friends.

Torrance Woman's Club installed its new officers June 6 in a "Basket of Flowers" installation ceremony conducted by Mrs. Lee A. McCoy, past president. She presented each officer with a long-stemmed carnation as she explained the duties of office.

A short business session was conducted by Mrs. Lee Stamps. Mrs. Fields of the Foundation for the Junior Blind accepted a Braille writer from the club. A picture was shown portraying the work of the Foundation.

The membership voted as the last philanthropy project of the year an amount of $226 to go for the purchase of chairs for the Scout center. Mrs. Stamps received a gift of silver from the club.

Piano and cello music by Norma Tappe and Lotus Semerau preceded the rituals. Installed in the ceremony were Mmes. J. P. Bay, president; Alma Smith, Russell Clawson, and A. H. Brown, vice presidents; J. G. Louvier, recording secretary; E. G. Laughney, corresponding secretary, and Miss Corlista Reeve, treasurer.

Also Mmes. D. E. Moore, auditor; L. G. Pulliam, ways and means; Fred Sandstrom, reservations; Andrew Acampora, programs; Rufus Sandstrom, yearbook; and D. J. Thomsen, parliamentarian.

... Ann Landers

cupy the rented space there is little you can do. You'd have a peachy time trying to prove that the added people up there are not guests.

If the "guests" don't leave within a month I suggest you consult an attorney who deals with real estate problems. Maybe he can come up with an answer.

Dear Ann Landers: I need someone outside the family to give me an answer to a question that has been driving me crazy.

My husband is a motorcycle nut. He spends all his spare time and money on his "bike." In his souped-up riding outfits he looks more like a high school sophomore than a 46-year-old business man.

I am annoyed with my husband but I am deeply concerned about our two children. They are 12 and 8 years of age. The nut insists on taking them with him (on the back of his bike) when he goes for a spin, as he calls it.

The traffic in our city is heavy. He assures me he's careful and that the accidents I read about in the newspaper are due to recklessness and neglected equipment.

Should I let him continue to take the children or should I register a major squawk and put an end to it? I need a yes or no.—CANT COPE

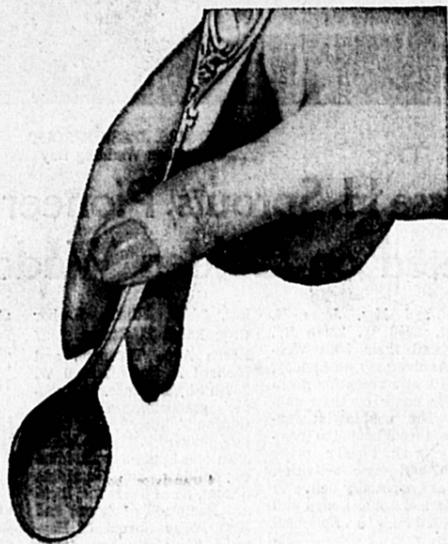

Dear Can't Cope: If they were my children I'd say no.

A 46-year-old man who gets himself decked out like a high school sophomore sounds terribly immature. I would not risk the lives of my children by allowing his judgment to prevail in a matter so important as this.

Are you tempted to smoke because the crowd does? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' book, "Teenage Smoking," enclosing with your request 10 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
