

Gayle Burke Becomes Bride of David Yake

Miss Gayle Patricia Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Burke of Lakeland Village, Elsinore and granddaughter of Mrs. Rayonette C. Brown 1004 Crenshaw Blvd., Torrance, exchanged her marriage vows on June 1 with David Edward Yake. The bride and her parents are former residents of Torrance, Palos Verdes and Long Beach.

Rev. Dan Wagner of the First Baptist Church officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride wore a simple white street-length tissue chiffon gown over taffeta detailed with a scoop neckline, short sleeves and a box pleat skirt. She also wore a small white chiffon hat with veil and carried a bouquet of cymbidiums.

Miss Jacqueline Wolfer was the honor attendant. She wore a blue sheath and carried glameillas.

Raymond Holts of Whittier stood as his brother's best man. A reception was held and the bride's table was centered by a four tiered wedding cake with four Grecian columns and decorated with doves, roses, and butterflies.

The bride was graduated from Elsinore High school and completed her freshman year at UC at Riverside majoring in psychology. She is past honored queen of the Job's Daughters.

The new Mrs. Yake will spend two months this summer at Camp Wintake, Running Springs, where she will serve as counselor for the Long Beach Council of Camp Fire Girls.

Her husband, an Elsinore High graduate, attended Riverside City College. He is employed by a Los Angeles firm.
