

... Ann Landers

(Continued From Page 9) I'm wondering if I was too short-tempered. Betty and I have played cards together for several years. We belong to the same service clubs and see a lot of each other. Almost without fail whenever she sees me she has a welcoming criticism. Example: "You have a run in your hose." or "Your hem is uneven."

Dear Up: A friend who tells you your hem is crooked or your sleeves are too long just as you arrive at a party, is no friend. Such information can do nothing for you but make you self-conscious and ill at ease. You did the right thing—probably several years too late.

Dear Ann: Can you help an old lady? I am having a daughter-in-law problem.

I make my home with my son and his wife. Until two years ago I worked. I retired at 65. My daughter-in-law has always worked and still does. We used to come home about the same time and do the housework and cooking together. Now she insists that I leave the cooking to her. She asked me not even to go into her room to straighten it up.

She is always nagging my son about money problems. She recently hinted that a friend of hers has her mother-in-law living with her and she gives up one-third of her social security for room and board. I think a woman my age should spend her social security check as she wishes. What do you think?—UNWELCOME

Dear Unwelcome: I'm afraid, my dear woman, money is the least of your problems. A mother-in-law who signs her letter as you did ought to live somewhere else. You'll be a lot happier.

Does almost everyone have a good "How to Well-Liked" booklet? If so, send for yours. It's a booklet, "How to Well-Liked," enclosing with your request 25 cents in coin and a long self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

At President's Home Society Ends Year With Garden Party

Over 70 members and guests of the Nativity Altar Society were entertained Tuesday, June 12, in the lovely patio gardens at the home of the president, Mrs. Elles Cook, 1625 Fern Ave., Torrance.

During the social hour, preceding the luncheon, two retiring past presidents and a guild chairman, Mmes Harry F. Kale and Ann Zboyan, were honored by their friends in the society with identical bas-reliefs of "The Last Supper," presented by the parish pastor, Rev. John P. Cremins. The president, Mrs. Elles Cook, also presented each with a beautiful decorated cake, and thanked them for their past activities. At the same time Rev. Cremins presented the rummage sale chairmen, Mmes. Milton Boudreaux, Clarence Junior, Frank Dihope, Harley Berning and Ann Zboyan, with mementos in recognition of their hard work on the Society's successful rummage sales.

Buffet lines served themselves from a profusion of exotic dishes prepared by members of all guilds and arranged in the tropical patio presided over by the hostess, Mrs. Elles Cook, who was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Emma M. Burroughs of Alhambra and Mmes. Eugene McGovern, Harley Berning, Rudy Hanke and John Tweedy. A colorful stand, from which punch was served,

CDA Regents To Aid Camp Fund Drive

At a recent board meeting of Camp Teresita Pines for Girls, sponsored by the Catholic Daughters of America, Mrs. Wesley Muzik, grand regent of Court Our Lady of Victory 1344, and Mrs. Gust Sundquist, grand regent of Court Sacred Heart were named co-chairmen of the 1962-63 fund-raising drive.

The board meeting held bi-monthly was attended by Mrs. Muzik, Mrs. Sundquist, Mrs. Joseph Comore of Court St. Catherine, Torrance, and Mrs. Richard Herzog, Court Madonna of the Hills, Hollywood Riviera.

These women, as well as their successors, will be invited to spend a day at the summer camp located in the Big Pines area of the San Gabriel Mountains. The camp, one of the finest in the county, is open to girls 8 to 14 years of age. It was started 34 years ago and has grown from a few cabins to the largest camp at Big Pines, accommodating 150 girls each period during the summer. The program is arranged by a competent program director, assisted by well-trained counselors. Horseback riding, swimming, handcraft, nature lore, hiking, archery, and athletics are a few of the activities. Anyone wishing further information may write to Camp Teresita Pines, 717 Burlington, Los Angeles 57.

MRS. JOHN GIBBS ... Former Charlotte Meyers (Portrait by Seeman)

Meyers-Gibbs Nuptials Recited by Candlelight

In a late afternoon wedding at the Ascension Lutheran Church on Saturday June 9, Miss Charlotte Ann Meyers, daughter of Mrs. Jeanne Meyers, 4246 W. 180th St. exchanged her marriage promises with John Gibbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Gibbs, of Inglewood. Candles were lighted on the altar, banked with white blossoms, by Patrick Meyers. A prelude of nuptial music was played by A. C. Wiechman, organist, who also accompanied Mrs. Barbara Davenport, soloist.

On the arm of Mr. Phillip Meyers, the bride came to the altar wearing a gown of candlelight peau de soie fashioned with a chapel train. A pearl crown secured the misty illusion veil and the bride carried white gardenias and orchids. Miss Arlene Polsen, serving as maid of honor, wore yellow satin brocade and carried a basket of pink roses. Bridesmaids were Misses Caroline Cox, Georgia Powell, Barbara Chase and Ruth Harper. They were gowned in brocades in the rainbow colors and each carried a basket of pink roses.

The bridegroom chose as his best man, Jim Herman. Ushers were Mitchell Meyers, Michael Meyers, Douglas Gibbs and Howard Igasaki. The Rev. T. C. Warneke, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony. A reception was held at the church after which the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in San Francisco. The new home is in Inglewood.

The bride was graduated from the El Camino Cosmetology Dept. and is employed as a beautician. Her husband, a graduate of El Camino and Long Beach State College, is employed by TWA Airlines.
