

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

'Do THEY Just Love Having HER...'
Dear Ann Landers: Steady there, Girl. Don't let the onery critters throw ya'. Remember the senior citizen who accused you of not liking old people? She said she was over 70 and just loved living with her son and daughter-in-law. Well, that's ducky — but the central point is do THEY just love having HER?

I never cease to be amazed at all the fanfare in the newspapers when a parent lives to celebrate a 100th birthday. The President of the United States sends a telegram, the governor sends greetings, and there's usually a five-layer cake. And then, the last line of the newspaper report goes something like this: "Mrs. Hawmintosh has made her home with her daughter-in-law for the past 40 years."

I say the President should send the telegram to the daughter-in-law—especially if those last 40 years have been happy ones for the lady who has reached 100 — ADDED WORD

Dear Added Word: And now may I add a word? AMEN!

Dear Ann Landers: I'm 17, mixed up, in love and desperate. The fellow is 18, handsome, swell build, plays the guitar and has the dreamiest eyes I've ever seen.

I need an honest answer so I'll give you the straight facts. I lost my head over this guy completely and now there is no turning back. He never takes me out on a real date, like a movie or a dance or party. He is interested in only one thing.

Please don't lecture me. I'm a girl who listens to her heart instead of her head. If you could see him you'd understand. He's a combination of Sal Mineo and Cary Grant and talks like Adlai Stevenson. Please don't tell me to stop seeing him. It's impossible. — SANDBAGGED

Dear Sandbagged: I have no advice for a girl who listens to her heart instead of her head. The approach to problems I know is through the head.

I can only tell you how these affairs usually wind up. The fellow will drop you when he gets bored and you have nothing more to give. You'll be ashamed and heartbroken. If you think you're sandbagged NOW, Sister — just wait.

Dear Ann Landers: I married at 18. We had three children in five years. It seems I was always pregnant, or suffering from nervous exhaustion.

When the children were a little older I began to pay more attention to my husband but by that time it was too late.

Five months ago he told me he was in love with another woman and he wanted time to "think things over." I told him to think things over some place else. I let him know he could come see the children whenever he wished. He packed his clothes and moved to a hotel.

Six weeks later he started to come to the house every night. He's been wonderful to the children and very sweet to me. I know he'd like to come back home but he's ashamed to ask. It's apparent he's had enough of the other woman because he's with us every night.

I love him dearly and want him back, but I have pride, too. What shall I do? — TONGUE-TIED

Dear Woman: Untie your tongue, and in plain language ask him to come home for good.

Your husband's nightly presence is solid testimony to his feelings. Three children are involved and it would be tragic if you allowed silly pride to stand in the way of rebuilding your marriage.

To learn how to keep your boy friend in line without losing him, and for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Necking and Petting — And How Far To Go," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

CONFERENCE DELEGATES . . . Eleven Torrance Y Teen members of the YWCA returned yesterday from a five day YWCA Senior High Conference at the University of Redlands. Theme for the event was "Building Bridges to Understanding." Shown packing for the trip are, left to right, Gayle Schenk, Juli Oswald, Linda Babcock, Andra Silver and Susan Karen Beck. Others making the trip were Linda Walker, Sandy Enoch, Sharron McKaig, Janice Rubeo, Jeannie Sprout, Jane Lewis and Margie Olson.

Stahl-Manning Names Are Linked in Marriage

Miss Beverly Jane Stahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stahl, 2476 W. 251st St., Lomita, became the bride of Patrick Manning in a formal wedding ceremony at 11 o'clock, on June 15, at the Long Beach First Baptist Church. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Manning, 1603 W. 219th St., Torrance.

John Walker, accompanied by Ruth Flatley at the organ, sang "Because," "The Lord's Prayer" and "I'll Never Walk Alone" as the 300 wedding guests assembled.

Dr. R. Kepner stood at the flower-banked altar to officiate at the vow exchange.

The bride, wearing a traditional gown of white satin and lace, came down the aisle on the arm of her father. Her bridal veil cascaded from a pearl tiara and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis. Miss Dorothy Nares was the honor attendant and bridesmaids were Misses Jill Keith, Kris Richards, Melissa Baer and Melanie Woodward. Misses Nares, Baer and Woodward were in pink nylon lace and Misses Richards and Keith wore aqua silk organza. Their bouquets were of pink carnations and sweetpeas.

Tara Strohmeir, in pink nylon, was the flower girl and Timmie Gregory carried the rings on a heart-shaped pillow.

Walter Cotton was best man and ushers were Jan Dash, Jan Stahl, Spike Curtis, Gary Provence, Eugene Minor, Warren Woodward and Curt Manning.

A reception was held at the church. Mrs. Richard Stahl registered the guests. A patio reception for relatives and close friends was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon in Catalina. Their new address is 350 S. Madison Ave., Pasadena.

Both the bride and her husband are graduates of Narbonne High School. She is now a dental assistant in Pasadena. Mrs. Manning was active in the YWCA, Job's Daughters and was a Mariner.

Her husband is attending the California Institute of Technology.

MRS. PATRICK MANNING . . . At Home in Pasadena (Portrait by Seeman)

SHARE PROFESSIONAL ABILITY . . . A group of beauticians from the South Bay are contributing their time and talents by donating free beauty services to patients at the Harbor General Hospital. Arriving on their weekly trip to shampoo, cut and set hair are from left, Lorraine Hill, Marie Baker and Paula Perry. Others assisting are Marie Belli, Jean Daniels, and June Reamer. Any beautician wishing to assist with the program may call the Volunteers Office at the hospital.

Garden Club TORRANCE HERALD Discusses Installation

Walteria Garden club planned its installation for early fall at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Hazel Fulton last Tuesday afternoon. The group also selected a rare uchia as the club flower.

Prior to the meeting, the group toured the gardens at the home of Mrs. Gladys Lowther.

The July meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Mary Kifer.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and Mrs. Rita Lempan, co-hostess.

Attending were Mmes. Otto Maier, Reginald Darley, Greg Kim, Don Weymouth, Edward Carden, Hank Klempan, Gladys Lowther, Mary Kifer and Hazel Fulton.

Spending Summer In Torrance

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hayes, who spent the year teaching at Wasco, Calif., are spending the summer here at 2842 Pacific Coast Hwy. They are both attending the summer session at Long Beach State College.

Mrs. Hayes is the former Sharon Kirks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Boone Kirks, 22916 Cabrillo Ave.

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

JULY 1, 1962

13

GAVEL EXCHANGE . . . A highlight of the installation ceremonies of Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, was the gavel presentation. Here, Mrs. Robert Klaesges, newly-installed grand regent is presented her gavel by Mrs. H. Leo Burks, district deputy, as Mrs. Joseph Cemore, left, retiring grand regent looks on.

Auxiliary Holds Picnic

A patio picnic was enjoyed by the Auxiliary 40 of the International Typographical Union Local 862 on Sunday, June 24, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mohler, 1209 Desford St., Torrance.

Door prizes donated by local merchants were awarded. Mrs. Loren Everhart was the winner of one prize. Proceeds went to the auxiliary's fund.

A flag, with hand embroidered stars, donated by a local firm was given to the auxiliary in observance of Independence Day.

The next auxiliary meeting will be held in September, announced Mrs. Otto Neilson, president.

District Deputy Conducts

Catholic Daughters Install New Officers

Mrs. Robert Klaesges, grand regent, and other newly-elected officers of Court of St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, Torrance, were placed in office at formal installation ceremonies at Nativity parish auditorium recently.

Mrs. H. Leo Burks of Los Angeles, district deputy, was installing officer, assisted by Mrs. Don Bryant, installing monitor.

Mrs. Harvey Lee is the new vice grand regent, and Mrs. Lloyd Landerville, prophetess. Other new officers of the local C.D.A. court include Mmes. Ralph Sullivan, historian; Andrew Raebel, financial secretary; Robert O'Brien, treasurer; Gordon Cady, monitor; Harry Hamilton, lecturer; George Rausch, sentinel; Joseph Cemore and Gordon Hicks, trustees, and Charles Butterfield, organist. Continuing for another year as trustees are Mmes. Don Bryant, Richard Ban, Louis Derouin and Blake Weistead.

A beautiful floral decoration of peonies was made by (Continued on Page 14)

Beta Sigmas Plan Fall Aloha Luau

Nineteen members of the South Bay Area Council of Beta Sigma Phi met at the home of Mrs. Milt Ventress on Wednesday evening to make leis and decorations for their September "Aloha Luau" to be held at the Aloha Club. This will be a combination social and ways and means project by the Council and all chapters will participate in handling the decorations, door prizes and ticket sales. The council extends an invitation to any new Beta Sigma Phi in the area to contact Mrs. Ventress if interested in attending this affair.

Joining in on the fun and refreshments at the work party were Mmes. Ralph Comer, Art Setzer, Sam Dominguez, Larry Langley, and Mrs. Ventree of Mu Omicron and their guests Mmes. Andy Saksa, Jay Ostrander, Robert Kane, Charles Ray and Lola Abrams of Xi Theta Xi, Andrew Foster, president of the South Bay Area Council of Xi Zeta Chi, Fred Woodman, James Barnhart and Lee Von Idenstein of Rho Epsilon and Tom MacDonald and Richard Musto of Xi Zeta Lambda.

MRS. JAMES STEWART . . . At Home Here

June Wedding Bells Ring For Kathy McVeety, James Stewart

Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart are now at home in Torrance following a honeymoon at Big Bear. The couple were married at 2 p.m. on Saturday, June 16, at the First Methodist Church in Torrance. Mrs. Stewart is the former Kathy McVeety, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McVeety, 1061 W. Greenhedge St., Torrance. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Stewart, 504 E. 220th St., Torrance.

In her Mauer original wedding gown of Chantilly lace and tulle, the bride was given in marriage by her father.

The gown had a high neckline and long pointed lace sleeves. The full skirt was floor length. A pearl and sequin tiara held the illusion veil and the bride carried a crescent of butterfly orchids and carnations.

Mrs. Paul Noyes was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Ruby Wood, Judy Mondor, and Claudia Meave. Mrs. Noyes was in yellow organza and the others wore blue organza. Their bouquets were yellow carnation nosegays.

Tammy Smith, in white organdy, was flower girl. Rex

Larimer was best man and ushers were Dick Mondor, Rex Eagleson and Daryle Clark.

Rev. Gilbert Zimmerman, church pastor, conducted the vow and ring exchange. Bill Marvel, soloist, was accompanied by the church organist.

A reception was held at the church. The guest book and gift table were supervised by David McVeety and Frank Stewart.

The new Mrs. Stewart was graduated from Gardner High school and her husband is a Banning High graduate.