Vicki Garrod Is Now Mrs. George Vincenti

Torrance First Methodist Church was the setting on June 16 for the four o'clock wedding ceremony uniting Miss Vicki Lorraine Garrod, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Garrod, 25928 Oak St., Lomita, and George Tristan Vincenti. Parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Feliciano Vincenti of Buenos Aires, Argentina, were unable to attend the wedding.

The bride's wedding dress was of white dotted Swiss with leg o'mutton sleeves, fitted bodice buttoned down the front and a Peter Pan collar. The full skirt was floor length. The dress was the wedding gown of the bride's aunt, at whose wedding 15 years ago, the bride was a flower girl. A pearl halo tiara secured the wedding veil and her bouquet was of white orchids and carnations.

Mrs. Patricia Corbin was the matron of honor. She wore a yellow cotton dress and carried yellow carnations.

Bridesmaids were Misses Jean and Janet Garrod, young sisters of the bride. Jean wore yellow dotted Swiss and Janet was in apricot. Paula Garrod, the flower girl, wore apricot silk organza. Joel Le Doux stood as best man and ushers were Glenn Garrod and Darwin Fulks.

Rev. Gilbert Zimmerman, pastor, conducted the marriage ceremony as the church organist furnished a background of nuptial music.

A reception followed at the church. Mr. and Mrs. Vincenti are at home at 28019 Oak St., Lomita.

The bride was graduated from Narbonne High School and is taking a course in vocational nursing at Harbor College. She is also employed at a Torrance drugstore. Her husband is employed by the Estey Electronics in Torrance.

MRS. HAIG MARASHLIAN
... Prepares Armenian Dish

Tasty Armenian Dishes Offered as New Fare For Summertime Living

She loves to entertain and to do for friends and when accomplishing this she keeps happy, a theory by which she lives.

She is Mrs. Haig Marashlian, 1750 Greenwood, today's guest cook in the HERALD's Favorite Recipe column.

The Marashlians hail from Dinuba in the San Joaquin Valley. They have lived in Torrance for the past three years, moving here from Los Angeles. Mr. Marashlian has been employed by the Torrance Unified School district for the past 7 years and is assistant principal of instructions at South High school. He is a graduate of USC.

The couple have two children, Tommy, 11 and Kathy, 6.

Custom making and refinishing furniture is a hobby enjoyed by the local pair. Mrs. Marashlian helps with design and Mr. Marashlian has become so adept at making the furniture that he will teach a workshop for UCLA at Newport during these summer months.

Having received his masters in education and political science, the South High teacher is now working on his doctorate at USC.

The Marashlians are Armenian and with this background, Mrs. Marashlian has won a coveted reputation as an excellent cook. When asked to contribute recipes which have delighted her guests, Mrs. Marashlian chose three typically Armenian dishes for that something "new and different" to share with local housewives.

For the next few months, Californians will turn to their favorite outdoor living and with this in mind, today's guest selected a "Shish Kebab" to replace the traditional hamburger and steak; an easy-to-fix vegetable and a pilaf that needs only a salad and dessert to supply a full meal.

Shish Kebab

- 1 leg lamb
- 3 large onions
- 2 tbsp. salt (seasoned)

- 1 cup red wine (table)
- ¼ cup vegetable oil salt and pepper

Bone the meat; remove most of the fat and gristle; cut into 1½ inch squares. Chop onions, add seasonings. Mix all ingredients, marinate overnight. Place on skewers and broil over charcoal fire. Keep turning the skewers until meat is golden brown on all sides. Serves 6. Serve with broiled tomatoes, green pepper and egg plant chunks. Brush vegetables with oil before broiling. It is best not to put vegetables with meat on same skewer since cooking time varies. Cook vegetables first.

Zucchini Squash

- 6 to 8 Zucchini squash (medium size)
- 1 lb. Jack cheese (Monterey)

- 2 eggs (beaten)
- 2 cans tomato sauce

Par-boil squash in boiling water 8 to 10 minutes or until tender. Remove from water, cool. Slice squash lengthwise and place in glass pyrex dish 10 x 12 with cut side up. Place a slice of cheese over each slice of squash. Beat eggs with beater, add tomato sauce, salt and pepper to taste. Pour mixture over squash. Bake at 350 for 1 hour or until golden brown.

Rice Pilaf

- 1 cup rice (long grain)
- ¼ vermicelli
- ¼ lb. butter

- 2 cup broth (chicken or meat)
- salt to taste

Melt butter in a shallow pan. Break up vermicelli into pieces and fry in the butter until slightly browned, stirring constantly. Add rice, broth and salt. Bring to a rolling boil. Stir, cover and cook on low fire for 25 minutes. Stir before serving. Serve with a toss green salad and your favorite dessert.
