Torrance Eastern Star Observes Advance Night

Torrance Eastern Star Chapter 180 observed Advance Night on Thursday June 7 at the Masonic Temple.

Bernice Ruppel and Raymond Lougee served as entrance hosts and welcomed the many associates and friends.

Entering the lodge room first were John Pennington, worthy patron, Francis Reiser, associate conductress, and Raymond Shafer, associate patron. Next to enter were Carolyn Pennington, matron and courtesy officers.

Special escort was given to line officers of the Torrance Chapter, Frieda Shafer, associate matron; Bernard Dague, associate patron; Harriette Warnick, conductress, and Lois Lougee, Mrs. Shafer and Mr. Dague were escorted to the East, Mrs. Warnick to the West and Mrs. Lougee to the South.

Associate matrons and patrons, totaling 31, retired for escort. Line officers advanced and courtesy officers served in the stations.

Bonnie Moss, deputy grand matron was escorted as were worthy matrons and patrons, Gertrude and Julian Portrez, Point Fernin; Gladys and Eric Salmon, Playa Linda; Helen Andrews, Lomita; and Betty Clopton, Wilmington.

Past matrons and patrons of Torrance chapter were introduced. Deputy Grand Matrons of 1960 and 1961, Doris Savage of Wilmington and Dorothy Faulkner of Lomita were presented.

Frieda Shafer was presented with a beautiful rainbow and monetary gift from the officers. Mr. Dague was given a lighthouse and boat as well as a monetary gift.

Chairman for the evening was Frances Reiser, junior past matron. Since the associate patron is a retired Navy man, the dining room was beautifully decorated in a nautical theme. Refreshments were served by the committee.

Barron-Miller Vows Recited

Alberta Barron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Trimble of Culver City, became the bride of Robert S. Miller of Palos Verdes at the Wayfarer's Chapel at Portuguese Bend, Saturday, June 30, at 7:30 p.m.

In attendance were Mrs. A. Vaoian, matron of honor; Mrs. R. C. Jordahl, bridesmaid; R. C. Jordahl, best man, and Richard Frank Barron, usher.

A reception followed the wedding at the Presidential Suite of the Plush Horse Inn.

Guild Will Meet July 11

Ladies Guild of the Central Church will meet Wednesday, July 11, at 2 p.m. in the guild hall, Marcelina and Arlington. Mrs. Katherine Lane, president, will conduct the business meeting. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Lois Lougee and Mrs. Alice Speheger, hostesses.

Home From Trip

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Barkdull, 1521 Beech Ave., have returned from a three weeks vacation trip. The local couple visited the World's Fair in Seattle, after which they went to Utah and Idaho where they were guests of Mr. Barkdull's relatives. On the return trip, they visited old friends in Santa Cruz.

Christian Women Meet For Luncheon-Program

Palos Verdes Peninsula Christian Women's club will meet for a luncheon at the Smith Brothers Fish Shanty in WALTERIA on Tuesday, July 10, at 12 noon. All interested women in the area are invited to attend. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Norman E. Nelson of Palos Verdes. Child care will be provided at the WALTERIA Baptist Church, Newton St., WALTERIA.

Special feature of the meeting will be a presentation by Bryan Hardwicke, president of the Peninsula Gallery. The speaker will illustrate with paintings, "Art and the Emperor's New Clothes," a derivative of Hans Christian Andersen's fabled fairy tale. Music will be given by Paul Walberg, nephew of Mrs. Herbert Walberg, a member of the executive board of the club. The artist placed second with his French horn in the "Youth For Christ" talent contest recently. Betty Arthurs, a contralto, will sing and accompany Mr. Walberg. Highlight of the program will be the luncheon speaker, William George, manager of radio station KCPD.

Detroit Guests

Guests of the Gordon McFarlane family at 4703 Cadison St., are Mr. McFarlane's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. R. McFarlane and children, Mark, Diane, and Robert of Detroit, Mich. Disneyland, Knott's Berry Farm, Marineland and other spots of interest have been on the schedule of entertainment for the visitors during their two weeks here.

New TOPS Class Formed

A new class of TOPS (Take Off Pounds Sensibly) for women who want or need to reduce has been formed in Torrance. The class meets every Monday morning at 10 at the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 1432 Engracia Ave. Group therapy is used in assisting members to reduce. Child care will be provided if necessary. Any overweight woman wishing to lose weight is asked to attend the class.

Houseparty

Mrs. Charles Fowler of Torrance was hostess to three of her friends at a weekend at her home at Running Springs. Her guests were Mmes. Jack Hartel, Ellis Myer and H. E. Borner.

Anniversary
