previous marriage. What I want to know is am I related to this other child?

My brother seems to think that I am not related to the first son, I think I am, but don't know quite how. My brother says if I am related to that other child, then my husband's ex-wife is related to OUR child.

Please settle this argument once and for all, I am sick and tired of the bickering already.—PRETZELEATER

Dear Pretzeleater: You are not related to your husband's son by his previous marriage unless you legally adopt the boy. The same goes for your husband's ex-wife and your month-old son.

Now you can all stop fighting!

If alcohol is robbing you of someone you love of health and dignity, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Help For The Alcoholic," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
