God and Country Award to Be Presented Scout Today

Boy Scout Jim Stillwell will be honored during worship services at the South Bay Church of God today. Stillwell will receive the God and Country award in special ceremonies at 11 a.m.

Already, Stillwell has received the three highest awards a scout can earn. They are the Eagle Scout award, the Cedar Badge award, and the Order of the Arrow. The God and Country award is last of the top four awards in scouting.

The Rev. Charles F. Hart will make the presentation. Boy Scout troop 874, Stillwell's troop, will present the colors for the service.

South Bay Church of God is located at 17661 Yukon Ave. It is the only Church of God in Southern California to sponsor a scout troop.

Bay Area Painters Featured

San Francisco artists will be featured in a show opening this afternoon at the Peninsula Gallery, 1714 S. Catalina Ave., in Hollywood Riviera.

A reception will open the show, beginning at 3 p.m.

The paintings to be shown were brought from San Francisco last week. Several of the oils were brought to this city by gallery co-owner Bryan Hardwick, who travels to the Bay City.

Featured artists include Jean Galisch, Alycia Reiss, Beverly Wilke, and Gladys Castagnola.

The show will run through Aug. 25. Gallery hours are 11 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Tuesday through Saturday.

LOST . . . Winkie, a Siamese cat, is lost. Her owner is Clairlyn Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Smith of 21125 S. Broadwell Ave. Anyone who may have seen the cat, which disappeared July 23, is asked to call Mrs. Smith.

Polynesian Greets New Manager

Staff members at the Polynesian Restaurant, 3901 Pacific Coast Hwy., welcomed a new manager to the famed night-spot last week.

He is Benjamin Choye, who has managed the Tonga Room of the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco for the past 10 years. Choye has been working in restaurants since he was nine years of age.

Already Choye is hard at work to make his new post an enjoyable and pleasant one. His goal is to make the Polynesian as famous as the Tonga Room, and to do that he has brought several new recipes and drinks to the new post.

The restaurant has planned an exotic Hawaiian luau for this afternoon to welcome Choye to his new post. Among the island dishes to be served is Kalua Pig (Island Pig). The Polynesian dancers will entertain.

Action begins at 1 p.m. at the Waveria restaurant.

Post Session Registration Slated at EC

Ten o'clock scholars will get another chance.

Prospective college students who failed to register for fall, spring and summer sessions at El Camino College may register for a post session which will be conducted on campus Aug. 6-31.

Enrollment for the first post session in ECC history will begin Aug. 3 in the Campus Center at 8:30 a.m. Students whose surnames begin with the letters A through K may register from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. Others will register from 10 to 11 a.m.

Schedules listing the 35 classes offered are currently available in the registration office.

Hawkins reminded prospective students that they should be accompanied by parents or guardians.

Little Girl Waits While Pet Is Lost

A little girl sits today waiting for her pet to return home.

Clairlyn Smith and her Siamese cat have been fast friends for three years—since Winkie was a kitten.

Winkie is a grey female bluepoint cat. She disappeared from the Smith home on July 23. Clairlyn has been waiting for her return, but Winkie is still missing.

The Smith family lives at 21125 S. Broadwell Ave., just east of Normandie Avenue. Anyone who has seen Winkie or knows where she may be, may reach Mrs. Smith at FA 8-3253.

Three Arts Sets Dance Recital Here

A dance recital is scheduled for this afternoon at the Three Arts Dance Studio, 2252 W. Carson St. Time for the recital is 3 p.m.

Students at the studio will be presented in their annual mid-summer recital. Group and solo numbers in ballet, tap, modern jazz, and ballroom dancing are included. A special added dance will feature Hawaiian numbers.

Full enrollments are now being taken at the studio, located just west of Torrance High School. Instruction for all age groups in a number of varied dances is available.

Free Helicopter Rides Provided Youngsters Here

Free rides on a scale model helicopter will be provided for young and young in heart at the Food Giant Market, 3731 Pacific Coast Hwy., from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. tomorrow.

The novel ride comes to Food Giant through cooperation of Laura Scudder Foods. The scale model takes off straight up, and allows the youngsters to experience the thrill of flying in perfect safety.

Market manager Al Djerlande invited all parents to bring their children by for the ride.

IT'S OFFICIAL . . . Mayor Albert Isen made the annual Ranchero Days celebration official this week as he signed the proclamation setting Aug. 1 to 5 as the date for this year's event. Looking on are Bob Vroman, Junior Chamber of Commerce carnival coordinator, and Lt. D. C. Cook, rodeo coordinator for the Torrance Mounted Police. The two organizations are co-sponsoring the civic celebration with the Elks Club.
