

The "Great Churches of the Golden West" telecast will originate from the 11 a.m. service of the Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd. next Sunday.

The program will be the 565th in the series of telecasts which, according to the narrator, Dr. Clifton E. Moore, reach an estimated audience of 250,000 people throughout Southern California.

The pastor, the Rev. H. Earl Kuester, will deliver the sermon entitled, "God Has Spoken," which will be based on the text in Hebrews chapter 1, "God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spoke in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son."

KAY BAREFORD, director of music, will direct the choir in the singing of the anthem, "Open Our Eyes," by Macfarlane. Mrs. Bareford will also sing a solo, "Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled," by Oley Speaks. Mrs. Eleanor Jacobson will be at the console of the organ, and Bob Bareford will handle the lighting and sound from the control room.

Al Van Selow, minister of Christian Education, will lead in the invocation and the Rev. Lawrence Clark, principal of the Calvary Baptist Elementary School, will lead in the morning prayer.

At about mid-point in the program, a brief historical sketch of the church will be presented with photographs of past events thrown on the screen at that time. A Calvary Baptist Church service was televised about eight years ago on Great Churches of the Golden West, but this will be the first time the recently dedicated new sanctuary will be seen on the screen.
