Torrance Hospital Benefit

Designer Fashion Show Set Sept. 25

In their calendar for the new year, the Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary has spotlighted its Designer Fashion Show to be staged Sept. 25 in the Terrace Room of the Broadway Del Amo. This will be the auxiliary's major benefit followed by its annual Valentine ball in February.

Famous fashion designers from Europe and the United States will provide the latest in the new silhouettes for fall as auxiliary members and their guests attend the champagne show.

Among the name designers creating interest are Harvey Berlin, Larry Aldrich, Estevez and Donald Brooks. New hats by Lilly Dache, John Fredericks and Sally Victor will be shown.

Katherine Wueste, fashion coordinator for the Broadway, will narrate the fashions worn by professionals.

Invitations are being mailed this week and reservations may be made by calling Mrs. James Kimble or Mrs. Richard Cusimano.

A Birthday Celebration

Belinda Boulter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Boulter, 1721 Hickory Ave., celebrated her 11th birthday Tuesday.

She was guest of honor at a luncheon at her home after which she and her guests were taken to Hollywood to see the Cinerama "Wonderful World of Brothers Grimm."

Celebrating with Belinda were guests, Janet Posner, Doris Ann Hull, Johanna Monroe, and her brother, Peter Boulter.

Family Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Caldwell and three children, 1204 Fonthill, have arrived home from a two weeks vacation. The first week was spent in the High Sierras near Mammoth Lake. The family then went to Las Vegas for the last five days of their vacation.

Board Meeting

Sandstroms Tour USA and Canada

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Sandstrom, 2322 Eldorado, have returned from a twelve week motor trip. They drove up the coast to Seattle where they visited the World's Fair and then to Glacier National Park spending a few days.

Their itinerary took them through the northern part of the United States to Detroit. Entering Canada, they drove to Toronto for a several days visit with relatives. They visited Quebec enroute to re-entering the United States in Maine for their tour of the New England states. Heading south, the couple visited New York, Anapolis Md., historic Williamsburg, and on to Portsmouth, Va. where they visited friends.

Their homeward route was through the middle states to Denver and Bryce Canyon.

Robert Cato, Bride Now Residing in Torrance

Witnessed by immediate family members, Miss Glenda Bernice Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Samuel A. Gibson of Soldatna, Alaska, became the bride of Robert Forrest Cato, Jr., in a double ring ceremony at 5:30 p.m. on June 30. The wedding was solemnized at the Church of Christ of Latter Day Saints, Grand Ward, Bell Gardens.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Forrest Cato, Sr., 2418 Sonoma, Torrance.

Bishop J. Glenn Allen officiated at the vow exchange.

The bride, wearing a white organza waltz-length gown fashioned with a bouffant skirt and a lace overjacket, came down the aisle on the arm of her bridegroom. Her bridal veil cascaded from a white circular satin band and she carried a bouquet of white carnations encircling white orchids.

Miss Betty Horn was the honor attendant. She wore white organza and carried carnations.

Samuel Gibson, Jr., was the brother's best man.

A reception was held in the evening at the couple's home at 1116 Sartori, Torrance The guest book and gift table were supervised by Miss Darlene Horn.

Mrs. Richard Bowman served the wedding cake and Miss Shirley Lenahan was at the punch bowl.

The newlyweds left for a honeymoon, destination undisclosed.
