SHARON ATROWSKI
... Future Bride

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Atrowski, 4039 W. 182nd St., Torrance, announce the engagement of their granddaughter, Sharon Lee Atrowski, to Richard Stephen Porter, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Porter, 3917 W. 185th St., Torrance.

The couple plan to be married early next year. The bride-elect is a senior at North High school and is employed at a South Bay firm. Her fiancé, who was graduated in 1959 from Banning High school, is employed by a carpet installation company.

Hadassah Style Show Set Oct. 16

South Bay Chapter of Hadassah will present a showing of fall fashions from a Torrance shop at its desert-fashion show to be held at the Tasman Sea restaurant on Oct. 16 at 1 p.m.

There will be door prizes as well as table prizes. Members of the planning committee include Mmes. Jack Mishlove, Ernest Tarr, Gerson Jacobson, Myron Katz and Max Stern, chapter president.

The public is invited to attend. Tickets may be obtained from any Hadassah member.

Alumnae See Fall Fashions

Zeta Tau Alumnae enjoyed its first get-together of the fall session on Sept. 26.

The occasion was a morning Fall Fashion Show presented from 9:30 to 11 in the Lotus Room of Bullock's Westwood. Sponsored by the Zeta Tau Alpha Federation of Southern California, the event was offered through the courtesy of John Wisdom, vice president of Bullock's Westwood.

Fall fashions around the clock were emphasized in the commentary by Gloria Lopey. Door prizes completed the morning's entertainment.

BAZAAR TIME . . . All organizations of the St. Margaret Mary Parish in Lomita are busy with their booths for the annual bazaar to be held Oct. 6-7. Entertainment will be provided for all ages. Planning their booths are Mrs. Bernard Birgshneider of the St. Ann Guild and Mrs. Anthony Brandelli, St. Jude Guild, as two youngsters, Beth Anne Kersten and Albert Hernandez Jr., admire the toy horse.

Club Meets Annual Parish Bazaar In Lomita Oct. 6-7

Arts and Crafts club was entertained Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Helen Carpenter, 1004 Sierra Place, with Mrs. Vivian Cook as co-hostess.

At the close of a business meeting, members worked on their crafts under the supervision of Mrs. Eloda Barkdull.

Attending were Mmes. Maybel Banks, Melvina Beckwith, Florence Childs, Vena Hamilton, Ruth Hardin, Mae Jones, Ruth Kilgore, Mary McDonald, Zelma Miller, Charlotte Outcall, Addie Parks, Fran Snodgrass, Hazel Ward, Eloda Barkdull, Sybil Moffitt, and Hazel Fossum.

Mrs. Fossum will be the October hostess.

Visit Northwest

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Osborne, 3026 Torrance Blvd., returned recently from a two weeks vacation trip. They visited relatives in Modesto and Arcata and drove on to Eugene, Ore., where they were houseguests of friends.

Driving north they went to Seattle to the World's Fair after which they went to Victoria, B.C., for several days.

Localites on Eastern Trip

Mrs. Louis Dyer and Mrs. Gordon Capps left Friday evening by plane for New York City where they spent the weekend as guests of Paul Hudson, formerly of Torrance, who is now appearing at the Show Place in Greenwich Village.

Monday morning the two local women flew to Washington, D. C., where they are spending this week.

Mr. Dyer and Jay North, both of Screen Gems, left Monday morning by plane for Washington where they are filming a television series.

Barbara Ann Moudy Is Now Mrs. R. L. Woodring

Miss Barbara Ann Moudy exchanged her wedding promises with Ronald Larry Woodring of Los Angeles in an eight o'clock ceremony on Friday evening, Sept. 7, at the First Presbyterian Church in Gardena. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin G. Moudy, 3201 W. 179th St. Torrance. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Eli Woodring, of Pico-Rivera.

On the arm of her father, the bride came to the altar wearing a bouffant gown of Chantilly lace over satin. Her princess crown of iridescent sequins and pearls secured a fingertip illusion veil. The bride carried white orchids atop a white Bible.

Mrs. Walter Schultz was the matron of honor. She wore a street-length pink satin sheath and a hat of net and flowers. Her bouquet was of pink carnations.

Walter Woodring performed the duties of best man.

Rev. R. Murray Jones officiated at the vow exchange as Bill Reynolds, organist, played the nuptial music. Wesley Kennedy sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception for the 100 guests followed in the church social hall. Miss Patricia Hoskins registered the guests.

The couple spent a honeymoon in Catalina and are now living in Los Angeles.

The bride was graduated from Mt. Diablo High School and East Contra Costa Junior College.

Her husband is a graduate of the El Rancho High School in Pico-Rivera.

Silver Collar Brunch Is Benefit For Blind

Annual Silver Collar Brunch, given by the Women's Auxiliary to the Southern California Veterinary Medical Association, will be held this year on Tuesday, Oct. 2, in the Embassy Room of the Ambassador Hotel. The affair is a benefit for the San Rafael Guide Dogs for the Blind.

This auxiliary has also provided five complete units for blind persons in Southern California.

Those attending the benefit will enjoy a fashion show of designs by leading California designers and the Gosard Foundation Co. The show has been arranged by Miss Rene Cowley.

Mrs. Fred Bowers is serving as general chairman. She is being assisted by Mrs. Rollin Smith, of Torrance, president.

Others assisting are Mmes. Phil Olson, co-chairman, Paul Wise, program chairman; Robert Button, program secretary; William Putney, door prizes; Orville Warner, patrons and patronesses; Charles Ozanian, reservations; and Thomas Snortum, publicity.

To date this year, 36,000 dogs have been vaccinated against rabies by the veterinarians of SCVMA. They have donated their time and equipment in cooperation with the Los Angeles City and County Health Dept. and all Humane Assns. The vaccination program has been in effect for the past six years.

Mrs. Smith and a number of Torrance women are planning to attend the benefit brunch.

Club Schedules Weekend Party

Las Fiestadores Dance club will hold its yearly weekend trip on Oct. 25 when club members will gather at the Stardust Hotel in San Diego for golfing and dancing.

Members of the club board are in charge of arrangements. They are Messrs. and Mmes. J. A. Eisenbrandt, Kenneth Miller, Jack Brooks, Lloyd Jones, and S. H. Yanase.

At Conference

Mrs. Joseph P. Bay, president of the Torrance Woman's Club, Marina District 18, CFWC, attended the District Parliamentary Law Conference on Thursday, Sept. 20, at the Palms Woman's Club. Also attending was Mrs. Alma C. Smith, first vice president. Attorney James J. McCarthy was the speaker. His topic was "Tax-Free, Non-Profit Women's Clubs: Does Your Club Qualify?"

Troth Told At Luncheon

The engagement of Miss Michelle Schonert and Garry Jensen was announced to relatives and friends attending a luncheon last Sunday at the home of the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Rubie Schonert, 3223 Raintree Ave., Torrance.

Nov. 17 has been chosen as the wedding date.

The future bride is a graduate of South High School. Her fiancé attended Long Beach State College and is now a student at Brigham Young University.

Returns Home

Leaving by plane last Friday evening for her home in Arlington, Va., was Mrs. Sam Thomsen, the former Judy Wolf, who had spent two weeks here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolf on Halldale Avenue.

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

'If You Could See Inside Their Heads . . .'

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a girl, 16, and a sophomore in high school. Right now I am plenty disgusted and fed up with all the high-sounding slogans about respectability paying off. There's a big dance in two weeks and I haven't been asked, and neither has my best girl friend. We are both anti-make-outs.

The two trampiest girls in our class have already turned down a half dozen dates. Some of the fellows who asked them are boys we'd love to go with. I know what will happen. My girl friend and I will be asked two days before the dance by fellows who have been turned down by at least three tramps.

I've heard it said that the girls who play it fast and loose in their teens never make it to the altar, but from what I can see they live a mighty full life in high school. How about this—FOURTH CHOICE

Dear Choice: Would you be a tramp if you were assured of an invitation to every school dance? Of course not, so quit crying.

The promiscuous girls live a "full" life all right,—full of anxiety, insecurity and worry. They may seem care-free and gay, but if you could look inside their heads and see what goes on you wouldn't trade places with them for five minutes.

Dear Ann Landers: I hope you can help me with a problem that has been bothering me for a long time.

Carl, the fellow I am engaged to marry is very moody. I never know quite what to expect from him. My boss had never met Carl, so last week he invited us to lunch at a lovely downtown restaurant. Carl showed up late—wearing Bermudas, a sports shirt and boating shoes. He had been sailing. When my boss saw him he had a difficult time concealing his surprise. As for me, I almost died of embarrassment.

It was not the first time Carl has pulled something like this, but it was the worst boner yet. I love him too much to break our engagement. (Continued on Page 18)

Delegates Speak

'Girls State' Described At B&PW Club Meet

Special guests at the dinner meeting of the Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club on Monday evening, Sept. 17, at a local restaurant were the four girls from Torrance High Schools, who attended the annual Girls State held on the Davis Campus of the University of California in June.

They are Mary Frances Campbell from Bishop Montgomery High School; Toni Hamblin, South High School; Linda Kennedy, North High; and Ruth Scott, Torrance High.

Following the club's theme of civic participation, the girls were introduced by Mrs. Lucille Lewellen, program chairman. Each girl gave a description of Girls State, a program sponsored yearly by the American Legion and its auxiliaries in an effort to acquaint hundreds of girls with the methods of our democratic government. During their stay, the girls named candidates, campaigned, conducted rallies, and elected officials.

Mrs. Alma Smith, Girls' State chairman of the Torrance American Legion auxiliary, who was also a guest at the meeting, presented a certificate of appreciation to Mrs. Lewellen, past president, for the club's financial support in sending one of the delegates to Girls State. Mrs. John Snow is presi-
