Demos Open Local Office; Call for All-Out Efforts

Assemblyman Vincent Thomas, Democrat from the 68th Assembly District, called for an all out effort to elect Democrats in the November election at the opening of Democratic headquarters in Torrance on Saturday.

Thomas stated that it was "of vital concern to a fast growing progressive community like Torrance to retain the type of leadership in this state that the Democratic Party has given during the past four years." He called on the people of Torrance to help led by Governor Brown to Sacramento.

David K. Lyman, county committeeman and president of Torrance Democrats, Inc., and Renee Dean, state committeewoman welcomed Thomas to the Torrance headquarters at 1876 Torrance Blvd., and pledged him their full support as cochairmen of the Torrance Democratic campaign.

Lyman stated that Vincent Thomas had served the 68th

Assembly District well during the 22 years he has been in the Assembly and that "the citizens of Torrance welcome the opportunity to give him and the Democratic Party a vote of confidence."
