

Eleventh Annual 'Sing' Program Slated Nov. 4

Preparations for the "sound-off" event of the 1962-63 season are well under way and members of Los Cancioneros, concert choral group, are inviting friends to attend the 11th "Sing For Your Supper" on Sunday, Nov. 4, at the Redondo Beach Masonic Temple. Serving times for the Italian style supper will be 1:30 and 6 p.m.

entertainment for children, will be $1.50 for children and $3 for adults. All tickets for the evening "Supper" will be $3. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the Singers, or by calling FR 5-7202 or FR 5-1633.

SUPPER chairman, Mrs. William I. Holloway, announces that as is traditional with the event, the members of the chorus will serve their guests and present a varied fare of light entertainment during the dinner. True to the theme of "Sing For Your Supper," guests will be invited to join in community singing, which has always been a popular part of the "Sing."

Highlighting the entertainment will be the appearance of Lyle Heck, popular baritone, who will sing a number of folk songs with his own guitar accompaniment.

Harbor College Students Seeking Homecoming Queen

Harbor College students this week are in the process of choosing a homecoming queen from seven candidates.

Selection of the queen will be announced between halves of the Homecoming football game with Glendale Nov. 9. She will also reign as the Homecoming Ball the following night at the Breakers International Hotel in Long Beach.

From Monday through Friday the candidates supported by campus organizations will campaign for votes. Voting will take place Nov. 5 and the four finalists will be announced at a noon rally the day of the game.

Candidates for queen are: Stephanie Korchak, San Pedro, sponsored by the Varsity Club; Joanie Fyffe, San Pedro, sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega Service Club; Sandy Rauch, Los Angeles, sponsored by the Associated Men Students; Judy Wilson, Lomita, sponsored by the Circle K Service Club; Caroline Dyck, Harbor City, sponsored by the Teacher Arts Club; Phyllis LeDonne, Wilmington, sponsored by the Fashion Board; Joan Brecto, Palos Verdes Estates, sponsored by Gamma Epsilon Tau.

The chorus, under the leadership of their well known director, Barbara Mabin, will offer a sampling of their repertoire, including music of the Christmas season, madrigals, spirituals, and selections from "Amahl and the Night Visitor," and "West Side Story."

'Cane' Fund $1,346

Total funds received through the White Cane program, sponsored by the Torrance Lions Club, has reached $1,346.81.

Fund breakdown is: street solicitations, $822.81; letters, $473, and jar collections $51.

Gratitude is much more than a verbal expression of thanks. Action expresses more gratitude than speech.—Mary Baker Eddy.

AT JAMBOREE . . . Mike Elder, Eagle Scout of Troop 963, and Eagle Mike Ridley, Explorer Post 963X, are greeted by Louis D. Waldman, director of public relations for May Co., during the 17th annual May Co. Jamboree at the Shrine Auditorium last week. Fourteen thousand Cub Scouts, Scouts, and Explorers saw two stage shows starring television, recording, and vaudeville personalities.

Missionary At Revival

Dr. Tommy Halsell, missionary to Equatorial Brazil, is the evangelist in a revival at the Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church of Lomita. The revival will continue through Sunday's services. Dr. Halsell is speaking twice daily on week days at 10:15 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. He will speak at both the 8:30 and 10:50 a.m. services on Sunday, and at the 7:30 p.m. service.

Dr. Halsell is a native of Arkansas. He served as pastor in his native state, in Kentucky, and was pastor of the Popular Avenue Baptist Church of Memphis, Tenn., when he was appointed as a missionary.
