Top Level Law Enforcement Officers Join With Coakley

A top level group of former law enforcement officials "who are deeply concerned about the internal conflict that has arisen between the incumbent Attorney General and the law enforcement community," yesterday announced their support of Superior Judge Tom Coakley for Attorney General. State chairman of the Law Enforcement Committee to Elect Judge Tom Coakley is Emmett C. McGaughey of Los Angeles, a former president and member for nine years of the Los Angeles Board of Police Commissioners. Co-chairmen for Southern California are: Jack A. Donahoe, now retired, was Captain of Police of the Los Angeles Police Department for 37 years, commanding the Detective Bureau and the Homicide Division; and Robert M. Ware, Sheriff of Imperial County for more than 18 years and U. S. Marshall of the Southern District of California for eight years.

IN A STATEMENT McGaughey asked "How can any of us support the incumbent when he has done so little to support us, and refers to us as wearers of 'hobnail boots?' California's law enforcement officers deserve better treatment from the hands of the chief legal officer of the State. "Superior Judge Tom Coakley of Mariposa," McGaughey said, "has pledged a crusade against crime and will provide dynamic leadership in a whole-hearted dedication to effective law enforcement. Coakley has said that he believes that California's shockingly high major crime rate, which now stands at almost twice the national average, can be reversed. "Judge Coakley," McGaughey concluded, "has the highest qualifications for office and, in addition, has the talent and energy which will make him a great Attorney General."

Lions Slate Regional Stag

A regional stag social will be held by the Lions Club Nov. 8 at the Sojourn Motor Inn, 4330 W. Century Blvd. Representatives from the Dodgers, Angels, Lakers and Rams will be featured on the program. The price of $4.50 will include a steak dinner and the opportunity to meet many Lions of other clubs. Social hour will be 6:30 to 7:30. Every CARE package goes as an expression of good will from an American donor to a foreign recipient. One dollar sends 22 pounds of surplus food to the needy.
