One would think in order to have a good time on the town, you have to go down to what is called by some "civilization," commonly known as Hollywood. This is not so. Just take a look at what restaurants and clubs are running advertisements on this page alone and you can see what I mean.

Just try these night spots and you'll find that not only are they close to home, but in many cases the entertainment is of the highest caliber.

Cine-Matics

by Jo Beau

Well it has been said many times before that Hollywood never produces a film that equals the book version of any story.

This has held true in the highly publicized and advertised "Lolita." This story of a perverted man and a love-sick young girl falls far short of its pre-publicity.

You leave the theater with a feeling of incompleteness and disappointment.

Usually one can put up with

SAFE RIDE
The safest ride in California is on a school bus, according to the California Highway Patrol. In 1961, school buses traveled over 104,000,000 miles with only one fatality among the pupils.

the hatchet job that filmland does to a book but this one really cuts deep.

If this type of advance program can produce such poor results, I wonder about Cleopatra.

Grand Opening Slated For Lomita Restaurant

A gala four-day grand opening celebration in the best tradition of the Far East will be observed by Chin's Chinese-American Restaurant in Lomita starting Monday.

Restaurateur David Chin said the four-day event will start Monday, Nov. 12, and will continue through Thursday, Nov. 15.

Chin said special Chinese favors will be given to members of the entire family — chopsticks for dad, jasmin tea for mother, plus Chinese toys for the kids.

The restaurant, which features an extensive menu of both Chinese and American foods, is located in the Lomita Plaza Shopping Center at Pacific Coast Highway and Walnut Street.

The restaurant, at 1841 Pacific Coast Hwy., serves businessmen's luncheons and has family dining booths. The modern, clean Chinese motif interior seats 80 persons. It is open seven days a week—11 a.m. to 10 p.m. Sunday through Thursday and 11 a.m. to 1 a.m. on Friday and Saturdays.

Special children's portions are served and the restaurant also offers piping-hot food to go. Free paved, lighted parking is available in front of the firm.
