Homemakers Plan Yule Workshop

"Holidays in the Making" is the theme of the Christmas workshop of the Los Angeles Home Economists in Homemaking at Mrs. Richard Oedy's home, 4722 Sharyn Lane, Saturday, 1:30 p.m.

Members are asked to bring a holiday decorating idea to show the group, their favorite holiday sweet to share (plus the recipe), and a gift to exchange, preferably something handmade.

Membership in the Los Angeles Home Economists in Homemaking is open to graduate home economists, who are either full-time homemakers or who combine with their homemaking a part-time or full-time outside career in any field. A homemaker may belong to HEIH and also be an individual member of the state and national association.

ence Flagg, electrician; Muriel Gasser, publicity; Eleanor Barnhart, memory book; and Ernest Hansen, prompter.

Henriella Tenney, chairman of the evening, assisted by her committee, served refreshments in the dining room.
