

Ready Trip Plans

Plans for two- or three-day Earth Science Club of Los Angeles field trips to Baja, Calif., and Geles Harbor College. Sponsors to Death Valley are Eugene Gottsdanker and made by the newly organized Martin Reiter.

Meeting Called

A Lomita Chamber of Commerce executive meeting will be held Thursday, Dec. 20, at 3:30 p.m. in the Chamber of Commerce office.

College Chorus to Give Annual Holiday Concert

More than 100 voices in a mass chorus will be featured in the 16th Annual Christmas Concert to be presented at 8:30 p.m. Saturday and 3:30 Sunday at the El Camino College Campus Theater.

Joining forces to present their talents will be the El Camino College Community Choir, under the direction of Crist Mikkelsen; the Concert Choir and Chorale, directed by Miss Jane Skinner and the Brass Choir, under the direction of Calvin Greer.

Two motets from "Sacrae Symphoniae" by G. Gabrieli will be the high point of the program. "This is the most exciting part of the program, involving more people and is consequently the hardest to coordinate," Mikkelsen, music instructor, stated.

ALSO featured in the concert will be several movements from Johann Sebastian Bach's work, "Magnificat." Featured are: Et Exultavit Spiritus Menus, (And My Spirit Hath Rejoiced); From Heaven Above to Earth I Come; Et Misericordia (And His Mercy is on Them); Suscepit Israel, (His Servant Israel), and Quia Resperit (For He Hath Regarded).

Parts of the opera, "Amahl and the Night Visitors," which was originally written for television in 1952, will be presented.

FROM THE classical period, the "Kyrie Eleison" (Lord Have Mercy On Us) from the Lord Nelson Mass will also be performed and the modern Ava Maria (Hail Mary) by Igor Stravinsky.

"This year's concert has more sacred music than before. It is in a more serious vein than last year's concert," Mikkelsen said.

Soloists to perform during the production will be Amanda Scott, Lee Reavis, Robert Rodgers, Marian McGee, John Alegria, Mary Cobabe, Jean Lang, Madison Taylor, Alden Willis, Sharon Thomas, Irving Byrne, Charlotte Tiernan, Goldie Sugar, Claudia Wilkins, Floyd Woel, and Marilyn Miller.

ACCOMPANYING the choir will be Loretta Nicassio and Jeanne Fuller on the piano, and Jean Wells will be playing organ.

Admission is free and the public is invited to join with the students of El Camino in celebrating the holiday season.

Baptist Sing Set

Central Church Choir Plans Cantata Sunday

The Christmas cantata, "Love Transcending," by John W. Peterson, will be presented, with scripture narration, by the choir of Central Evangelical United Brethren Church at the 11 a.m. services on Sunday.

with Mrs. Hilda Findley as organist. Preceding the service, Mrs. Hoy will sing, "When Christmas Bells Are Ringing." "Christmas Mediations," organ and piano and Mrs. Findley at the organ. The Rev. Walter M. Stanton, pastor of the church, will read the Scriptures.

Soloists for the presentation will include Winifred-Ruppell, Joan Huber, and Judy Moore as sopranos; Charis Mc Ness, contralto; Carl Pisel, tenor, and Glenn W. Briney, bass.

Classes Started
Robert A. Wells, pastor of the Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church, is currently conducting a "new members class" each Sunday at 6:30 p.m.

The choir will be under the direction of Mrs. Irene Hoy.

"This class is not only for the new members of the church but also for anyone interested in studying the new testament as it relates to everyday life," the pastor stated.
