American Way Girls Treat 175 Youngsters

Thanks to the American Way Girls, 24 members of the junior class of Redondo Beach Union High School, Santa Claus will pay an early visit Saturday to 175 handicapped youngsters of the South Bay area. The party will be staged 2 to 4 p.m. at the Redondo Beach Women's Club.

Guests will be area children receiving service from the Crippled Children's Society of Los Angeles County, either in speech therapy or at the annual summer day camp in Alondra Park, plus other members of their families.

Organized in 1961 for the specific purpose of aiding the Crippled Children's Society, the American Way Girls act as volunteer counselors at the day camp, and decided to make a Christmas party their winter project. With Christina Gonzales as mistress of ceremonies, the girls will dress as clowns and dolls to entertain their young guests, and will present a special dance skit in addition to having presents, refreshments and a visit from Santa Claus.

The club's officers are Karla Nesthus, president; Barbara Valenzuela, vice president; Alice Saucedo, secretary; Martha Butt, treasurer; Barbara Cunningham, historian; and Cecilia Enriquez, sergeant-at-arms. Serving as senior advisors are Mrs. Agnes Wright and Mrs. Ed Gonzales.

Despite patrols, 200 to 300 refugees reach Hong Kong every week. CARE has $1 Food Crusade packages to help new arrivals and other Chinese families in the Colony.

Al Van Selow to Be Ordained at Calvary

Al Van Selow, minister of Christian education at the Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd., will be ordained to the Gospel Ministry Sunday at the 7 p.m. service.

Mr. Van Selow, who is in his third year of service at the Calvary Baptist Church was graduated last June from the California Baptist Theological Seminary in Covina. Prior to coming to this area, he served as minister of Christian education at the Temple Baptist Church of La Habra. He and his wife, Lavon, are the parents of two small sons.

Mr. Van Selow has requested the pastor of the church, H. Earl Kuester, to deliver the ordination sermon. The title of the message will be: "The Commission of Jesus Christ," taken from Luke 4:18,19.

Dr. Alger W. Geary, executive secretary of the Los Angeles Baptist City Mission Society, will lead in the prayer of consecration and ordination. Rev. D. S. Bennett, director of the Department of Church Development and Strategy of the LABCMS, will deliver the charge to the candidate and the welcome to the ministry will be given by the Rev. Addison S. Thurston, director of student work for the LABCMS.

Theater Group Offering Several Holiday Programs

Chapel Theatre offers a fun-filled riotous comedy for the holiday season in presenting "The Marriage Go-Round," by Leslie Stevens.

Jarl Victor of Palos Verdes announces his cast includes Dick Miller of Miraleste as the professor, Rosemary Buell of Palos Verdes as his wife, Alma Nelson of Palos Verdes as "the other woman," and Larry Worch of Gardena as the friend of the married couple.

Year's Eve for audience attending that evening's performance.

THE PROGRAM for New Year's Eve will consist of steak dinner and champagne at Smith Bros. Fish Shanty restaurant, then the presentation of "The Marriage Go-Round" at Chapel Theatre, followed by a return to the Fish Shanty for hors d'oeuvres, party favors, dancing and seeing the New Year in.

THE GIST of the plot of this hilarious play revolves around the fantastic proposition, made by the "other woman" to this married college professor, which cannot be divulged so as not to spoil the climax of this sophisticated play.

Opening night will be Friday, Dec. 28, with curtain at 8:30 p.m. The play is for adults only.

The evening's event will be close to home for Southwest residents, without having to worry about traffic or distance, for the reasonable rate of $12 per person for this festive holiday "package." Reservations are now being taken for New Year's Eve at Chapel Theatre and may be made by calling the box office, FR 2-9636, where further information will be given.

By public demand, Chapel Theatre again offers a New Year's Eve package of fun, through the combined efforts of Smith Bros. Fish Shanty restaurant, and will again be able to provide a gala New Anyone wishing to join the cast at the Fish Shanty after the play may do so by making special reservations for this part of the evening through the box office.
