Friends Reunited

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sprouse, 2513 Apple Ave. had as their houseguest for 10 days recently, Mrs. Forrest Ingle of Oklahoma City. Mrs. Sprouse and Mrs. Ingle had been girlhood friends in Oklahoma City and became separated during the war in 1941. A search began by both of them to locate each other, through the Red Cross and other facilities. Not long ago, Mrs. Sprouse checked the telephone directories and found Mrs. Ingle back in Oklahoma City. A long distance phone call was made and Mrs. Ingle boarded a plane for Torrance for the happy reunion.

Dignitaries Pay Visit To Local Rebekah Lodge

Torrance Masonic Temple was filled to capacity on Wednesday evening, Nov. 28, when the Rebekah Lodge 347, Independent Order of Odd Fellows welcomed Faye Martin, president of the Rebekah Assembly of California and other dignitaries of the order including Maud Milburn, District 66 deputy president and member of the local lodge.

Work of the order was exemplified by model lodge made up of two or more members of the lodges of the district.

The president spoke on her activities and the homes for the children and the aged and other topics pertaining to the order.

The dining room and tables were beautifully decorated in her colors, pink and green, and trees of keys, bells and hearts, her emblems.

Refreshments were served by a committee headed by Olive Veatch and members of other lodges.

Maud Milburn has announced the following installation dates for January: Home 78, Jan. 4; Welcome 145, Jan. 8; Torrance 347, Jan. 9; Gold Crest 357, Jan. 16; Hawthorne 391, Jan. 17; Neta Dena 351, Jan. 21; Silver Ware 199, Jan. 24, and Silver Crest, Jan. 28.

Compton lodge will conduct the installation in Torrance and on Jan. 11 the Torrance lodge will install in Compton.

All members of the staff and drill teams are asked to be present for practice on the first and third Wednesdays of the month.

MAKE OFFICIAL VISITS . . . Mrs. Fay Martin, president of the Rebekah Assembly of the State of California, left, and Mrs. Maud Milburn of the Torrance lodge, district deputy of District 66, made official visits to the Torrance Rebekah lodge Nov. 28. Mr., Mrs. Harley Haynes Are Honored at Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Harley M. Haynes, 1340 Engracia, who have been residents of Torrance for the past 42 years, were honored at a reception on Nov. 23 celebrating their 60th wedding anniversary.

The party was given by their children, a daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Meger of Torrance; another daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Romine of Garden Grove; and a son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Haynes of Corona Del Mar.

The twenty-six persons attending the reception were the children, grand-children and great-grandchildren of the honored couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Haynes were married Nov. 27, 1902, in Kokomo, Ind. They came to Torrance in 1920 and their children are all graduates of Torrance High School. Mr. Haynes owned and operated a machine shop in Los Angeles until his retirement in 1952.

Mrs. Haynes is a member of the Torrance Eastern Star and Mr. Haynes is a member of the Masonic Lodge. They are both active in the First Christian Church here.

For the reception, a beautifully decorated tiered cake centered the dining table. A silver coffee service was presented to them and Mrs. Haynes was given an orchid corsage. The family gave a toast to their continued happiness and good health after which cake and coffee were served.

Attending the party with the hosts were Richard Romine, Tom Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yancy and three children, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meger and son, Mr. and Mrs. D. Adler, and three children; Mr. and Mrs. M. Stroman, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Romine and daughter.

Best wishes were sent from Maine by Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Jackert and three children. Mrs. Jackert is a daughter of the celebrants.

RN Camp to Hold Annual Party Dec. 18

Torrance Camp of Royal Neighbors is planning its annual Christmas dinner party on Tuesday evening, Dec. 18 in the Torrance Woman's Club with a catered dinner served by Mrs. Lydia Meeks and staff. All members and friends are invited but reservations must be made in advance with Mrs. Mark Fox.

At the recent business meeting the following were chosen to lead the business and social life of the camp for the coming year: Mrs. Bertha Sharpe, orator; Mrs. Marie Koshak, vice orator; Mrs. Mary Baker, recorder; Mrs. Vertie Fox, receiver.

Mrs. Gail Quignon will serve as chancellor; Dorothy Malloy, marshal; Anne Reed, inner sentinel; and Cora Hill, outer sentinel.

Bert Tippin will move up to first year manager, Mrs. Jennie Tippin, second year manager, and Marge Baudin, third year manager.
