

Retirement Center

Spring Manor Preview Scheduled for Sunday

Spring Manor, Torrance's first retirement center, will hold a special preview inspection of the first two completed luxury apartment units Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m.

The one-half million-dollar two story stucco and brick structure is located at 20900 Earl St., just north of the Little Company of Mary Hospital. The retirement center is of French Provincial architecture and interior, and offers many features unique in the retirement home field today.

Upon completion of the entire project in early January 1963, Spring Manor will have two large lounges. The ground floor lounge will have a fireplace made of Palos Verdes stone, TV and a grand piano, as well as a complete library. A refreshment lounge upstairs will provide a place for guests to entertain visiting friends and relatives.

EACH OF THE 35 spacious living units will have a private patio or balcony and an intercom system to the front desk, in addition to a large walk-in closet, wall-to-wall carpeting, FM music, and a fire alarm system. Residences are available completely furnished or unfurnished, as the tenant may desire. Complete maid service will be provided.

Senior citizen guests touring the furnished units from 1 to 5 p.m. on Sunday will have the chance to take home plump Christmas turkeys. The management of Spring Manor is offering as their Christmas gifts to guests 10 holiday turkeys. The drawing for the birds will be held at 5 o'clock.

Gives Reading

Thomas Vize will read Christmas selections at the Harbor College faculty noon-time reading series tomorrow.

SPACE PROGRAM . . . Phil Johnson, lecturer for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's western operations office at Santa Monica, talks to some 200 Bishop Montgomery High School students. He spoke Thursday on the United States' past and future in space and showed mockups of various satellites. Johnson lectured to mostly science students. (Herald Photo)

Obituaries

LUCY DURAN

Requiem mass was celebrated at Nativity Catholic Church yesterday for Lucy Duran, 23, who died in a Torrance hospital Tuesday. Holy Rosary was recited at the Halverson-Leavell Mortuary Chapel Friday evening.

Mrs. Duran, who lived at 2217 Maricopa Ave., had lived in the Torrance area all her life. She attended Torrance High School and was a member of the Nativity Catholic Church.

She is survived by her husband, Benjamin M. Duran; a son, Benjamin Jr.; a daughter, Sandra Joyce; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Alderete of Torrance; five brothers, William Alderete of Lomita, Benjamin Jr. of Harbor City, and Gilbert, Joseph, and Fred of Torrance. Also surviving are three sisters, Julia Marvel, Clara Cepeda, and Cruzita Quinones.

Burial was in All Souls Cemetery, Long Beach.

Temple Holds Carnival

The annual Temple Menorah carnival will be held at noon, today, at the temple, 1101 Camino Real, Redondo Beach.

Lunch will be served by the ladies of the Sisterhood, featuring old fashioned potato latkes, as well as other traditional carnival fare.

An art sale and raffle will culminate the Sisterhood Art Show, held this week. Work of leading South Bay women artists will be on display and for sale.

For the youngsters there will be a carnival clown as well as many game booths with prizes for all ages.

A country store will sell canned goods and other donated merchandise. There will be a special toy booth offering a variety of toys for the holiday season.

Brooks in 'Lights'

John Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Brooks, 420 Calle Mayor, will play the part of a wise man in a traditional nativity tableau in the University of Redlands presentation of "Feast of Lights," which started yesterday and will continue through tomorrow. Brooks is a freshman.

The World's Largest Selection of

TOYS AT ONE PRICE 88¢

Toys for all ages! When you see our selection of interesting toys and games, you'll agree it's the largest one-price collection in the world . . . thousands of toys, dolls and games . . . and nothing over 88¢.

PLENTY FREE PARKING

THE 88¢ AT ONE PRICE STORES

1423 Marcelina, Downtown Torrance

OPEN SUNDAY, 11 'TIL 5:30

...Symphony

(Continued from Page 1)

Jones, Lee Ruse, Bill Foster, Elbert Deffebach, Glenn Harmon, Barry Anderson, David Wright, Wynn Smith, Tim Stockton, Dora Wahl, and Jeff Joseph. Rebecca Lee is pianist for the group.

Girls Give Trees

Camp Fire Girl Group 108 recently delivered two Christmas trees to the Bay Crest Sanitarium and Convalescent Hospital at 3750 Garnet St. The girls also sang Christmas carols.

Recreation Facility Completed

A new $150,000 recreation center building at Torrance Boulevard and Madrona Avenue will be dedicated Tuesday.

The ceremony is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. Business leaders, professional men and civic officials will be on hand for the event.

"We feel that the completion of this building is a great stride forward in the development of the cultural-recreational complex of the Torrance civic center," H. Milton Sippel, chairman of the Park and Recreation Commission, said.

Sippel added, "This center will eventually include a library, art gallery, gymnasium, senior citizen facility and an auditorium. We are proud of this latest addition."

The recreation building is located behind the municipal swimming pool at the intersection.

Church of God to Present Live Christmas Pageant

For the sixth consecutive year, the South Bay Church of God, 17661 Yukon Ave., will present its annual live Christmas pageant. Each night for seven nights beginning tomorrow and continuing until Dec. 23, a cast of approximately 25 characters plus a live sheep and "Sally" the donkey, will take their places on the front lawn of the church to bring this living portrayal of the Christ child's birth to the community. There will be two performances nightly, at 7 and again at 8.

After the 7 p.m. performance of the pageant on Dec. 23, the sanctuary choir of the church will present John W. Peterson's Christmas cantata, "Born a King," under the direction of the minister of music, Fred Shively.

Soloists for the cantata will be Mrs. Cal Eubanks, Mrs. Robert Jonas, Mrs. Murrell Miller, Mrs. Verle Watson, Bruce French, David Goodwin, and Robert Jonas.

The pastor, the Rev. Clifford L. Tierney, and the members of the congregation extend a very cordial welcome to every-

Church Offers Sacred Music

A sacred cantata, "The Story of Christmas," by H. Alexander Matthews, will be presented by the Sanctuary Choir of the Western Avenue Baptist Church, Western Avenue at 253rd Street, today, at the 11 a.m. worship service.

The Rev. Charles Hughes, pastor, announces that this beautiful program of Christmas music is directed by Maynard Meader. Allen Dennen will accompany at the organ.

Featured soloists include Norma Condon, Pat Baergen, Virginia Jones, Alice Mills, Donna Hesselstine, Fred Baker, Dennis Howry, the Rev. Charles Hughes.

MORE FOOD ADS IN THE HERALD

TV HOME SERVICE CALLS

We have been servicing in the Torrance, Long Beach, South Bay areas since 1951. We give 100% value for your service dollar, in parts and workmanship.

FOR FAST, EFFICIENT SERVICE, CALL . . .

320-3793 423-3394

TORRANCE LONG BEACH

SPECIAL ELECTRONICS

132 E. MARKET ST. LONG BEACH

Dependable Insurance

FIRE AUTO

Lund CO. AGENTS

1425-A MARCELINA DOWNTOWN TORRANCE

PHONE FA 8-3567

CHRISTMAS CAROLERS

once more the season of song and merriment is at hand . . .

Del Amo Shopping Center is pleased to announce

BISHOP MONTGOMERY HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

will sing Wednesday night, December 19th at 7 p.m.

Director: Sister Rita Francis
Student Conductor of the Evening: Mary Campbell

They Will Render Numbers From Their Christmas Program of Holy Night by Gregorio Martinez Sierra

DEL AMO SHOPPING CENTER MAIN MALL

Student Party Set

Punch and cookies will be served to Harbor College students Tuesday, last day of school before the holidays, at 2 p.m. in the Student Union at the AMS-AWS Christmas party.

Glee Club Carols

Marymount College Glee Club presented a program of Christmas carols at the Torrance South Bay Hospital Thursday.

NOW OPEN

SILVER SKATES RESTAURANT

COCKTAIL LOUNGE and COFFEE SHOP

2577 SOUTH WESTERN AVENUE, TORRANCE, CALIFORNIA

Adjacent to the Olympic Ice Arena