Lucky-Hiram's Own Home Economist

The succulent Christmas Turkey or the Baked Ham that will grace your Holiday table deserves the best salad accompaniment you can produce. Try our FROZEN ORANGE AMBROSIA and see if you don't agree that it rates a gold star! Blend together 1 tablespoon fresh orange juice, 4 tablespoons mayonnaise, and 1-3 ounce package cream cheese. Add to the mixture 1 cup diced canned pineapple, 3/4 cup pitted Royal Ann Cherries, 1 cup mandarin orange sections, 1/2 cup halved red maraschino cherries, 1/2 cup pecan halves and 3 tablespoons sugar. Whip until stiff 1 cup heavy cream then add to it 1 teaspoon grated orange rind. Fold the orange cream mixtures into the fruit-cheese mixture. Pour into a refrigerator tray and freeze until firm. At serving time, remove and slice into serving portions . . . Serve on crisp romaine, endive or water-cress. Garnish with a red or green cherry half or a few toasted coconut shreds. Makes 8 elegant servings.

HC Plans to Enroll More Students in Nursing Field

Because of the increasing need for vocational nurses in the local area, Harbor College is planning to enroll an increased number of students in this field for the spring semester, Miss Roberta Lindberg, director of nursing, announced today.

"The high ranking of our graduates in recent state examinations has created a new interest in this important field," stated Miss Lindberg. Results from the latest examinations conducted by the State Board of Vocational Nurse Examinations placed Harbor third out of 43 schools participating.

A PERSON planning to enter the vocational nursing field should have average mental ability, emotional stability, good health, good personal appearance, and a sincere desire to be of service to the sick. Applicants may be male or female, married or single, preferably between the ages of 18 and 45. Exceptions to age limits are made depending on

Toastmasters Treat Young

"Children's Night" was held by the South Bay Toastmasters Club last night at the Redondo Elks Club. Members brought their children or young friends to the annual event.

Kansans Plan Birthday Fete

The Kansas Society of Los Angeles will celebrate the 102nd anniversary of the mid-west state's admission to the Union, Jan. 2, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., in the South Seas Room of Clifton's Cafeteria, Los Angeles.

Entertainment will include western songs, a western variety show, refreshments and door prizes. All Kansans and their friends are invited.
